

Contents

1. Die Autoren und das Genre	7
2. Die Inhalte	9
3. Vorüberlegungen zum Einsatz der stories im Unterricht	11
4. Klassenarbeiten und Klausuren	12
5. Konzeption des Unterrichtsmodells	19
6. Components
Component 1: Basic Tools for Analysis and Interpretation	20
1.1 Murder in the village: a logical puzzle	20
Worksheet 1	22
● Agatha Christie, The Case of the Perfect Maid
1.2 Story plot	24
Kopiervorlage	27
1.3 Structure of a typical detective story	28
Worksheet 2	29
1.4 Stylistic devices and their function	30
1.5 The detective story as social comment	31
Worksheet 3	32
Component 2: The Development of the Genre	34
● Gilbert K. Chesterton, The Queer Feet : the detective story as vehicle for ideology
2.1 Story plot and chronology	35
Worksheet 4	38
2.2 Messages and symbols	40
● Raymond Chandler, Marlowe Takes On the Syndicate : the hard-boiled detective
2.3 Plot and sub-plot	41
Worksheet 5	42
2.4 Characterisation and code of honour	43
Worksheet 6	44
2.5 Language in the detective story: slang and irony	48
Worksheet 7	49
Component 3: The Female Hard-Boiled Detective	51
● Sara Paretsky, Settled Score
3.1 Story plot and constellation of characters	52
Worksheet 8	53
3.2 Characterisation by objects: role expectations and fair-play rule	55
Kopiervorlage	56
Worksheet 9	58
● Susan Dunlap, Death and Diamonds
3.3 Plot and sub-plot: how to manipulate the reader	59
Worksheet 10	61
3.4 Facts and implications	62
Worksheet 11	63

Component 4: The Female Criminal	66
● Mary Wings, Kill the Man for Me
4.1 Crime as common ground for women: heroines or criminals?	67
Worksheet 12	69
4.2 Shifting point of view and its effects on the reader	70
Worksheet 13	72
4.3 Dramatic structure	73
● Liza Cody, Excerpt from Bucket Nut
4.4 Role stereotypes revisited	75
Worksheet 14	77
4.5 A female criminal's code of honour	78
4.6 Language and mood	80
7. Anhang: Vocabulary Games	83
8. Musterantworten zu den Fragen in der Textausgabe	85
9. Weiterführende Literatur und Adressen	93
10. Internetadressen	95