

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	V
Preface by the editors	XI
Preface by the author	XVII
 Chapter I: Introductory	 1
 Chapter II: Notions about Nature	 7
• Wind and Air	7
• The Moon (tere)	10
• Omens and the Moon	11
• The Sun (poda)	12
• The Stars (nini)	13
• The Sky (kangitong)	13
• Clouds (kada , also adam)	14
• The Harmattan (kudu)	14
• The Rainbow (yamyam)	14
• Beasts (Animals of the Bush) have Leaders and Organised Social Life	15
 Chapter III: Notions about Man	 16
• When all Flesh was swallowed up	16
• ik, i-	19
• Shirum	20
• Kebe	21
• Kedom	22
• Revivication out of Spilt Blood	22
• Life-Stuff and Personality	23
• Human Destiny	24
• Old Age and Renewal	24
• Life a Journey, the Grave a Resting Place	24
• Death and Deathlessness	25
• Resurrection	25
• Immortality of the Soul	26

Chapter IV: Ideas about the Dead	27
• Reincarnation	29
• Story of the Woman Robbed of her Children	30
Chapter V: Supernatural Beings other than Ghosts.	32
• Belief in the Supreme being	32
• Other Uses of the Name Yamba	35
• Tutelary Spirits	35
• Pidok mana (the household tutelary spirit)	36
• Monje am	36
• Kel	37
• Kida	38
• Wa mo mamom min gan wabo (our town's thing which we worship)	40
• Monje ngunyu	40
• Malignant Spirits	40
• Njong pero	41
• Account of the Truce between Shongwom and Borak. An Interesting Ethical Sidelight.	41
Chapter VI: Activities of Ghosts	44
1. Some General Characteristics of the Ghosts as related to their "Survivors"	44
2. The Fact of Ghostly Activity	44
3. General Characteristics of Ghostly Activity	44
• Particular cases of ghostly working illustrative of all of above	46
• When the Health is attacked	46
• When Sleep is broken	47
• When Property is attacked	47
• When Wa-daki died	48
• When a Woman is barren.	49
• Dead Men haunting the Old Haunts	49
Chapter VII: Activities of Demons (shoro).	51
1. Things Demons are seeking from Men.	51
2. The favors given men by the shoro	52
• Particular cases of shoro activity	52
• Why the Women do not Deck their Persons on Going to the Bush. . . .	52
• Why Blood Sacrifices are Refrained from for a Period	53
• An Account of the Custom of Keeping One's Luck Secret	53
• The Case of Abnormal Births and Twins	54
• Mother Hiding with Her Child from Demons	54

• Dangerous Worship.....	58
• Demons Filling the House.....	58
• The Come-Out Demon	58
• Karga Casting Out Spirits (Told by Karga)	59
• Account of the shoro which yesterday dropped something on the Woman's Head (Told by Buryu, August 13, 1924).....	61
Chapter VIII: Sorcery	63
• Ogo . The Power and the People of Ogo	63
• Alleged Sorcery of Lating	66
• Methods of People with Ogo illustrated by the Feast called Shaga	67
• Kamat, accused of having Ogo , denies having Ogo in Statement to J.H., Febr. 16, 1925	68
• Hostile Power without possessing ogo	68
Chapter IX: Medicine.....	69
• General Patterns of Behaviour	69
• General Classification of these Lines of Action.....	69
• Kamat's Account of the Rise of the Medical Practice in His Family, his Entrance upon it, and his Methods.....	72
• Lepers and Leprosy	75
• Small-pox and the Care of the Patient	76
• Account of the Young Man who died from Small-pox at the Hamlet Tulu-ngaka in the Spring of 1925	79
• What happened in the Case of a Certain Corpse of a Small-pox victim ...	80
Chapter X: Witchcraft - The Workers.....	81
• Account of the Rise and Induction of an Anambidok (Male Diviner).....	84
• Account of the Rise and Induction of a Monje Ngorom (Female Diviner).....	87
• Attempted Suicide of Mum-kong	89
Chapter XI: Witchcraft - The Works.....	91
1. Information.....	91
• Divination is decided on.....	91
• When twins are born.....	93
2. Judicial Machinery.....	93
• The Anambidok Setting Charm-Medicine against Stealing	93
• Tracking a Thief	94
• Divining for a Thief	94
• The Divining that Aborted	95

• Discovering and Punishing Guilt in Sorcery Case.....	96
• Proceedings preliminary to going through the Ordeal.....	97
• A Hamlet Plagued, March to July, 1924.....	98
3. "Medical" Aid.....	102
4. The Anambidok goes on the Quest for a Lost Soul.....	103
1) When the soul is abducted by a sorcerer.....	103
2) When the soul is abducted by demons.....	104
5. Clearing the Air.....	109
6. Clearing the House.....	109
Chapter XII: Worship - Basic Considerations.....	112
1. Characteristic Elements of Tangale Worship.....	112
• Tabooed Acts in the Town's Life when the Town Farm Grain is Growing.....	114
2. Places of Worship.....	116
1) Ma Eku	116
• Migration: Seeking a Land.....	116
• The Selection and Setting-up of an Eku Stone.....	119
• Admission Rules.....	122
• Upkeep Rules.....	122
2) The Kambidu (Sacred Tree of the Hamlet).....	122
3) Pi mana (the rear of the hut).....	123
4) Kangada (porch).....	123
5) Kamana (interior of hut).....	123
6) Talmana (central courtyard of compound).....	123
7) Kambada (town farm).....	123
8) Tili (on the ground, anywhere).....	124
3. Officials in Worship.....	124
Selection and duties of the mai eku (priest of the grove).....	124
Chapter XIII: Worship - Personal and Domestic Rites and Ceremonies.....	126
1. Rites and Ceremonies connected chiefly with Motherhood.....	126
• Recognition of the critical character of Pregnancy.....	126
• Pregnancy, the signal for adopting the front leaf dress.....	126
• Pregnancy before payment of the bride price: an occasion for the payment of a large castrated goat, and for feast and rites.....	127
• What prevents motherhood in the case of some girls.....	129
• The placenta specially cared for.....	129
• Motherhood dangerous by reason of uncleanness.....	130
2. Rites and Ceremonies connected with Birth and Childhood.....	130
1) Regular Rearing Rites.....	130
a) Day of birth.....	130

b) Day when the cord drops. The feast of the navel	132
c) The third month. Presentation of the boy in the grove	132
d) Third day after presentation in the grove. Naming the child	133
e) Feast when the boy "attains to legs"	133
f) Feast of the lifting of the demon	134
2) Ceremony Initiating Boy to Place in Public Grove Worship	134
3) Special Expedient Rites	135
3. Rites and Ceremonies connected with Marriage	137
4. Rites and Ceremonies connected with Home and Family	138
1) The service of Pidok mana	138
• The offering to the Mate of the shoro	143
• The Hoe turned into a Spear	145
2) The service of Kel , the town farm shoro	145
5. Neglect and Methods of Repudiation of the Demons	148
1) Neglect	148
2) Repudiation	148
• Method No. 1	148
• Method No. 2: Snatch, Scatter and Spoil	149
6. Procedure when a Feast is prepared for Demons and the Victim Dies before the Rites are performed	149
 Chapter XIV: Worship - Personal and Domestic Rites and Ceremonies (Cont'd.)	151
• Death and Burial Customs	151
• The day of "death salutations"	153
• The day of the "doing of the hands"	154
• Death of an infant-in-arms	156
• Special Methods of Burial in cases of lepers and small-pox victims	157
• Rites when a spared twin dies	157
• Memorial Feasts	158
1) Dun modo	158
2) Pe kodok	165
• Expiatory Rites in Blood Revenge	170
 Chapter XV: Worship - Clan and Tribal Rites and Ceremonies	174
1. The Mid-Wet Season Convocation in the Groves	174
2. The Mid-Dry Season Convocation in the Groves: Tangra	176
3. Regulations concerning Foods and Vessels carried to the Groves at Feasts	179
4. The Worship of Kida	180
5. Rites in connection with Labul-poki	181
6. The General Attitude to Epidemics	183

Chapter XVI: Worship - Rites and Ceremonies in Connection with Agriculture,

Hunting, and War	185
• Agricultural Rites and Ceremonies	185
1) Reverence for Food	185
2) Working by Cue	185
3) Gathering the Grain into the Garner	186
4) At the First Opening of a Full Granary	186
5) Performance of the Chameleon Dance	186
• Rites and Ceremonies in connection with Hunting	190
1) The Hoeing of the Ground under the Sacred Tree of the Hamlet	190
2) A Mass Hunt with Nets	192
3) Rites in connection with Dogs	197
a) When a dog kills a "thing with teeth"	197
b) When pups are born	197
4) Methods of Settling Disputes arising over Claims in the Hunt	198
• Rites and Ceremonies in connection with War	198
1) How Eastern and Western Tangale became Enemies in War	199
2) Rites with Heads and Slayers	200
a) The head hunt	200
b) Ceremonies and celebrations arising from the capture of a head	200
c) The feast upon and burial of a head	203
d) Disinterment of heads, and change of location	204
e) Ceremonies when cleaning out a head pot	205
f) The feast of the cleansing of the knife-edge	208
g) Secret head-stealing	214
 Appendix: Tangale Texts Caught from the Lips	216
I. When Kaltungo spared the one Komda Man	216
II. Medicine from Human Bodies	216
III. When all Flesh was swallowed up	217