Preface.....	ix
The Editors and the Contributors.....	xi
1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF CANCER SCREENING.....	1
Introduction.....	1
Consideration of a Potential Screening Test.....	1
Evaluating the Performance of a Test.....	3
Evaluating the Effectiveness of Screening.....	5
Mathematical Models of Screening.....	9
Selection of High-Risk Groups for Screening.....	10
Promotion of Early Diagnosis.....	10
Ethical Issues.....	10
Genetic Issues.....	11
References.....	11
2. SCREENING FOR CANCER OF THE CERVIX.....	15
Introduction.....	15
Epidemiology of Cervical Cancer.....	15
The Natural History of Cervical Cancer.....	16
The “Pap” Test.....	17
Evidence for the Effectiveness of Screening.....	17
The Effectiveness of Screening in the UK.....	20
The Treatment of Screen-Detected Lesions.....	22
Cost-Effectiveness of Cervical Screening.....	23
Frequency of Cervical Screening.....	23
Quality Control Issues.....	24
Sensitivity of Screening.....	25
Potential for Automation.....	26
Alternative Tests.....	26
Screening in Developing Countries.....	26
The Role of HPV in Cervical Cancer.....	28
References.....	28
3. SCREENING FOR CANCER OF THE BREAST.....	33
Epidemiology.....	33

Aetiology .....	34
Treatment, Survival and Prognosis of Breast Cancer.....	35
Predisposing Factors .....	36
The Rationale for Screening .....	37
Screening Tests for Breast Cancer.....	37
Effectiveness of Screening in Reducing Mortality .....	41
Effectiveness of Screening Younger Women .....	43
Effectiveness of Breast Self-Examination .....	45
Disadvantages and Costs of Breast Screening.....	46
Conclusions.....	49
References .....	49
4. SCREENING FOR COLORECTAL CANCER .....	55
Introduction.....	55
Time Trends.....	55
Geographical Variation .....	56
Aetiology and Primary Prevention .....	56
High-Risk Groups for Colorectal Cancer .....	57
Natural History.....	57
Prognosis of Colorectal Carcinomas.....	59
Overall Survival.....	59
The Rationale for Screening .....	60
Screening Methods .....	60
The Acceptability of Screening.....	65
The Effectiveness of Screening.....	66
Disadvantages and Costs .....	70
Conclusions.....	71
References .....	72
5. EARLY DETECTION OF MALIGNANT MELANOMA OF     THE SKIN .....	77
Introduction.....	77
Natural History.....	78
The Screening Test for Malignant Melanoma.....	79
Options for Screening .....	81
Health Education to Promote Self-Screening .....	81
Organised Professional Screening.....	87
Other Aspects of Screening.....	89
Conclusions.....	90
References .....	90
6. SCREENING FOR OVARIAN CANCER.....	95
Introduction.....	95
General Requirements.....	95
Candidate Tests: Evidence from Observational Studies .....	98

Tumour Markers .....	98
Improving Performance.....	102
Intervention Studies .....	107
Conclusions.....	111
References .....	112
 7. SCREENING FOR PROSTATE CANCER .....	117
Time Trends and International Differences in Incidence .....	117
Aetiology .....	119
Staging .....	120
Survival.....	121
Natural History.....	122
Determinants of Prognosis .....	123
Screening Tests for Prostate Cancer .....	124
Prevalence of Prostate Cancer at Screening .....	127
Acceptability of Screening .....	128
The Effect of Screening on Prostate Cancer Mortality .....	128
The Potential Disadvantages of Screening for Prostate Cancer .....	129
Conclusions.....	132
References .....	132
 8. SCREENING FOR CANCERS OF OTHER SITES: LUNG, STOMACH, ORAL AND NEUROBLASTOMA .....	137
Introduction.....	137
Lung Cancer .....	137
Stomach .....	142
Neuroblastoma .....	145
Oral Cancer .....	149
References .....	153
 9. PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF CANCER SCREENING .....	159
Introduction.....	159
Research Methodology.....	159
Psychological Effects of Invitation to Screening.....	161
Psychological Effects of a Positive Screening Test .....	162
Psychological Effects in Patients with Screen-Detected Cancer.....	164
Reducing Distress – Improving Attendance .....	167
Reduction in the Distress Caused by Recall .....	168
Staff Stress .....	169
Self-Screening .....	170
Selective Screening .....	170
Conclusions and Further Research Needs .....	171
References .....	171

10. ECONOMIC ASPECTS OF CANCER SCREENING .....175
    Introduction .....175
    The Need for Economic Appraisal.....176
    Methods for Economic Evaluation.....176
    Economic Appraisal of Cancer Screening Programmes .....178
    Some Empirical Findings of Economic Evaluations of Cancer
        Screening.....183
    Conclusions.....184
    References .....184

Index .....187
