

Table of Contents

Preface.....	V
Chapter 1: Introduction.....	1
1.1 Approaches to the Study of the Acts of the Apostles.....	1
1.2 The Scriptural Story and the Narrative of Acts within the Context of Lukan Scholarship.....	5
A. The “Use” of Scripture in the Lukan Writings.....	5
B. Isaianic New Exodus and the Narrative of Acts.....	10
1.3 The Plan of the Present Study.....	17
1.4 Historical Plausibility.....	20
A. Authorial Context.....	20
B. Temporal Context.....	26
C. Literary Context.....	29
Chapter 2: Continuity and Discontinuity: The Significance of Isa 40:1–11 in the Lukan Writings.....	37
2.1 Introduction.....	37
2.2 The Presentation of the Isaianic Program in Luke-Acts.....	38
2.3 The Evocative Power of Isa 40:3–5: The New Act of God.....	41
2.4 Isaianic Themes in the Lukan Construction of an Identity Claim.....	45
A. Isa 40:1–2: The Restoration of the People of God.....	46
B. Isa 40:3–5: Universal Revelation of the Glory/Salvation of God.....	47
C. Isa 40:6–8: The Power of the Word of God and the Fragility of the People.....	48
D. Isa 40:9–11: The Restoration of the People of God.....	50
2.5 Isaiah 40–55: The Redefinition of the People of God and the Evocation of the Foundation Story of Ancient Israel.....	51
A. Isa 40:1–11 and the Introduction of the Exodus Paradigm.....	52
B. The Transformation of the Exodus Paradigm in Isaiah 40–55.....	55
2.6 Who is the “True Israel”? ‘Οδός-Terminology as an Identity Claim in Acts.....	59
2.7 Conclusion.....	69

Chapter 3: Isaiah and the Hermeneutical Framework of Acts:

Statements that Frame the Narrative.....	70
3.1 Introduction.....	70
3.2 Luke 4:16–30.....	70
A. The Text of the Isaianic Quotation in Luke 4:18–19.....	71
B. The Evocation of Isa 61:1–2: The New Age for the People of God	74
C. The Reinterpretation of Isa 61:1–2: The Lukan Redefinition of the People of God	78
3.3 Luke 24:44–49.....	84
A. The Allusion to Isa 49:6 in Luke 24:46–47.....	84
B. Isaiah and the Extension of the Markan Story of Jesus.....	86
C. Isaiah and the Justification of the Gentile Community: The Lukan Characterization of the Early Christian Movement.....	89
3.4 Acts 1:8.....	91
A. Allusions to Isaiah in Acts 1:8.....	91
B. Isaiah and the Groundplan of Acts: Isaianic New Exodus as the Hermeneutical Grid for the Story of Acts	93
C. The Use of the National Story of Israel: The Establishment of the Kingdom of the People of God.....	95
3.5 Acts 13:46–47.....	96
A. The Text of the Isaianic Quotation in Acts 13:47.....	96
B. The Transformation of the Isaianic New Exodus: The Accomplishment of the Lukan Redefinition of the People of God	98
C. The Ecclesiological Focus of the Isaianic Program: From the Stories of Jesus and the Apostles to the Story of the Community.....	100
3.6 Acts 28:25–28.....	101
A. The Text of the Isaianic Quotation in Acts 28:25–28.....	102
B. Isaiah and the Lukan Justification of the Rejection of the Prophetic Movement: The Development of the Competitive Claim concerning the People of God.....	104
C. From Luke 3 (Isaiah 40) to Acts 28 (Isaiah 6): The Dramatic Reversal of the Isaianic Program	105
3.7 Conclusion.....	109

Chapter 4: The True People of God:

The Restoration of Israel.....	111
4.1 Introduction.....	111
4.2 Isaiah and the Restoration of Israel	112
A. The Reconstitution of Israel.....	112
B. The Ingathering of the Exiles	113
C. The Community of the Spirit.....	115
D. The Rebuilding of the Davidic Kingdom.....	117

E. Repentance and the Turn to the Lord	118
F. The Inclusion of the Outcasts	120
4.3 Acts and the Restoration of Israel	122
A. The Reconstitution of Israel	123
B. The Ingathering of the Exiles	129
C. The Community of the Spirit	131
D. The Rebuilding of the Davidic Kingdom	135
E. Repentance and the Turn to the Lord	138
F. The Inclusion of the Outcasts	140
4.4 Conclusion	143
Excursus: The Continuing State of Exile	143

Chapter 5: The Agent of the New Exodus:

The Word of God	147
5.1 Introduction	147
5.2 The Process of the New Exodus: The Conquest of the Word	150
A. The Itinerary of the Word of God	150
B. The Hypostatization and the Power of the Word	160
5.3 The Goal of the New Exodus:
The Creation of the Community of the People of God	167
A. The Growth of the Word and the New Community of the Exodus Traditions	167
B. The Early Christian Community as the Sole Possessor of the Word	171
5.4 Conclusion	176
Excursus: The Word of God in Context	177

Chapter 6: The Lord of the Nations:

The Anti-Idol Polemic	181
6.1 Introduction	181
6.2 Anti-Idol Polemic and the Isaianic New Exodus	182
A. The Powerlessness of the Idols and the Nations in Isaiah 40–55	183
B. The Sovereignty of Yahweh in Isaiah 40–55	189
6.3 Anti-Idol Polemic and the New Exodus in Acts	193
A. The Powerlessness of the Idols and the Nations in Acts	193
B. The Sovereignty of the Risen Jesus in Acts	209
6.4 Conclusion	212
Excursus: Isaianic Influence on Second Temple Jewish Idol Parodies	213

Chapter 7: The Transformation of the Isaianic Vision:
The Status of the Nations/Gentiles.....217

 7.1 Introduction.....217

 7.2 The Nations/Gentiles in the Isaianic New Exodus.....218

 A. The Universalistic Concern for the Nations in Isaiah.....218

 B. The Particularistic Emphasis on Israel in Isaiah.....220

 C. Universalism and Nationalism in Isaiah.....221

 7.3 The Gentiles in the New Exodus in Acts.....227

 A. The Focus on the Mission to the Gentiles in Acts.....227

 B. The Impartiality of God and the Soteriological Equality of Jews and Gentiles ...236

 C. The Response of the Jews and the Mission to the Gentiles.....243

 7.4 Conclusion.....245

Excursus: Jews and Gentiles in the Final Age.....245

Chapter 8: Conclusion.....249

 8.1 Summary.....249

 8.2 Implications for the Study of the Lukan Use of Scripture.....251

 8.3 Implications for the Study of the Theology and Narrative of Acts.....252

Bibliography.....255

Index of Ancient Sources.....285

Index of Authors.....302

Subject Index.....308