Foreword — IX

Prologue — XIII

1 Mastering complexity: The emerging shift to Small Data — 1

1.1 Basic distinctions — 1

Complicated and complex — 1

Risk and uncertainty — 3

Exploration and exploitation — 4

Variety reduction and variety generation — 4

Autopoietic systems and input-output systems — 6

Participant role and observer role — 8

1.2 Weak signals – Initiating the process to cope with complexity and uncertainty — 9

The concept of weak signals — 9

Leading by weak signals – from insight to impact — 12

1.3 Leading by weak signals – The methodology in a nutshell — 13

Step 1: “System”: Setting the stage and identifying its boundaries — 13

Step 2: “Edges”: Searching the periphery for weak signals — 14

Step 3: “Patterns”: Detecting regularities and power laws — 14

Step 4: “Evolution”: Developing scenarios of pattern dynamics — 16

Step 5: “Indicators”: Shaping metrics and their narratives — 16

Step 6: “Framing”: Creating self-organizing viable systems — 17

Step 7: “Tipping Points”: Intervening with minimal invasion — 18

Step 8: “Alertness”: Organizing for future surprise — 19

2 Detecting weak signals and their underlying patterns — 21

2.1 Starting the exploration — 21

2.2 Step 1: “System”: Setting the stage and identifying its boundaries — 22

Conceptual foundations — 22

Methodology and tools — 26

Managerial practice — 35

2.3 Step 2: “Edges”: Searching the periphery for weak signals — 41

Conceptual foundations — 41

Methodology and tools — 44

Managerial practice — 51

2.4 Step 3: “Patterns”: Detecting regularities and power laws — 56

Conceptual foundations — 56

Methodology and tools — 61

Managerial practice — 116

3	Crafting “Leading indicators” and their narratives — 120
3.1	Starting the exploration — 120
3.2	Step 4: “Evolution”: Developing scenarios of pattern dynamics — 123
	Conceptual foundations — 123
	Methodology and tools — 124
	Managerial practice — 131
3.3	Step 5: “Indicators”: Shaping metrics and their narratives — 136
	Conceptual foundations — 136
	Methodology and tools — 138
	Managerial practice — 143
4	Navigating for impact: Weak signals in action — 146
4.1	Starting the exploration — 146
4.2	Step 6: “Framing”: Creating self-organizing viable systems — 153
	Conceptual foundations — 153
	Methodology and tools — 158
	Managerial practice — 168
4.3	Step 7: “Tipping Points”: Intervening with minimal invasion — 173
	Conceptual foundations — 173
	Methodology and tools — 174
	Managerial practice — 184
5	Anchoring the weak signal spirit — 188
5.1	Starting the exploration — 188
5.2	Step 8: “Alertness”: Organizing for future surprise — 190
	Conceptual foundations — 190
	Methodology and tools — 190
	Managerial practice — 197
	Epilogue — 201
