

Chapter 1. Introduction	1
Mookgo S. Kgatle, Anthony Reddie, and Collium Banda
Chapter 2. Black Theology and Human Flourishing in South African Neo-Pentecostal Prophetism	17
Collium Banda
Chapter 3. Religion and Economy: The Nexus between the ECG Church Leader's Lavish Lifestyle and His Congregants' Human Flourishing	51
Sello Jonas Thinane
Chapter 4. Human Unflourishing at Universal Church of the Kingdom of God: A Decoloniality Approach	73
Bekithemba Dube

Chapter 5. From Christianity to Plentianity: Reading Discourses of Human Flourishing, Prosperity Gospel, and Black Emancipation in King HQ Nala's Virtual Sermons Sphesihle Khanyile	97
Chapter 6. Blessing Seekers or Bounty Hunters?: The Case of the Followers of Prosperity Preachers in South Africa Sibusiso Masondo	143
Chapter 7. Human Flourishing in African Pentecostal Prophetism: Authentic or a Fallacy? Kelebogile Resane	159
Chapter 8. "Not yet Uhuru": Looking at the Poor, Ubuntu, African Pentecostal Prophetism and Human Flourishing in the Post-1990 South African Context Abraham Modisa Mkhondo Mzondi	183
Chapter 9. Prophetic Neo-Pentecostal Churches and the Theodicy Challenge Marius Nel	203
Epilogue Mookgo S. Kgatle, Anthony Reddie, and Collium Banda	225
Notes on Contributors	229
Index	231