

Contents

Preface	V
Abbreviations	XI
Bibliography	XIII
Introduction: Advance for Europe?	1
Chapter 1 German Law	7
I. Industrial Applicability – Utility	7
1. Industrial Applicability	7
2. Utility	9
II. Advance in the Art	12
1. Case-law Development under the Reichsgericht: Testing the Patentability Tests	13
a) Invention and Advance: The Double Test of Patentability	15
b) Advance v. Non-Obviousness	17
c) The Decline of the Advance Test	19
2. Case-law Development under the Bundesgerichtshof: The Advance at Rest	22
a) The Second Way-Invention and the Single Comparison-Rest	22
b) The Actual Function of the Advance Test	25
3. The Development of the Doctrinal Currents: Intellectual Property v. Inventive Activity	27
a) Patent Theories at the Time of the Enactment of the Patent Act	27
b) Developing the Non-Obviousness Standard	28
c) Advance: A Secondary Consideration	33
d) The Post-War Doctrine	34
III. Non-Obviousness	35
1. The Functioning of the Non-Obviousness Test	36
a) The Mosaic Test	36
b) The Application of a Value Judgment	37

2. The Subtests: Making Non-Obviousness Obvious	40
a) Positive and Negative Indicia of Non-Obviousness?	40
b) The Advance as a Subtest	42
c) Commercial Success and Technical Subtests	44
 Chapter 2 American Law	49
I. The Useful Arts	49
1. Statutory Subject-Matter	49
2. Utility	50
a) Operativeness and Advance	51
b) Specific Utility	54
c) Beneficial Use	57
 II. Non-Obviousness: 125 Years of Fatal Experience?	59
1. Non-Obviousness v. Advance	60
a) The Negative Rules	60
b) Hotchkiss v. Greenwood	62
c) Establishing the Non-Obviousness Standard	63
d) Non-Obviousness and Advance	68
2. Non-Obviousness: A Constitutional Standard?	69
a) In Search of Better Patents	69
b) From the Flash of Genius to Synergistic Results	70
c) The Patent Act of 1952 and the Trilogy	73
3. Advance in the Art: A Constitutional Standard?	77
a) The Issues Raised by the Constitutional Standard	77
b) The Advance Controversy in the Lower Courts	79
c) Reading the Constitutional Clause: Advance by Unobvious Inventions	83
4. Patents for Commercial Success	84
a) The Subtest of Commercial Success in the Supreme Court	85
b) Commercial Success: A Secondary Subtest	87
c) The Other Subtests	90
d) From Secondary to Primary Considerations?	92

Chapter 3 Conclusion	97
I. Standards of Patentability and Legislative Policy	97
1. Advance: German and American Experience	97
2. The Useless Invention	98
3. Non-Obviousness v. Advance: The Policy Issues	100
a) Non-Obviousness	101
b) Advance in the Art	103
II. Standards of Patentability and Economic Policy	105
1. The Incentive to Innovation	105
a) Patent Incentives for Advance-Inventions?	105
b) The Impartiality of the Patent System	108
c) Over-patenting Unobvious Inventions?	110
2. Information on Advances	111
Subject Index	114