

Table of contents

Preface	V
Authors	VII
Abbreviations of cited works	XVII

CHAPTER 1 OVERVIEW

Overview	1
----------------	---

CHAPTER 2 PRINCIPLES OF GERMAN IMMIGRATION LAW

A. Multitude of legal sources	2
I. International law	2
II. European law	3
III. National law	4
IV. Residence Act	4
V. Residence Ordinance	5
VI. Employment Ordinance	6
VII. Visa Handbook of the Federal Foreign Office	6
B. Catalogue of residence titles	7
I. Visa	7
II. Residence permit	8
III. EU Blue Card	8
IV. ICT Card	9
V. Mobile ICT Card	9
VI. Permanent settlement permit	9
VII. EU long-term residence permit	9
C. Split competencies of involved authorities	9
D. Dualism between right of residency and right to pursue gainful activity ...	10

CHAPTER 3 SHORT-TERM STAYS UNDER THE SCHENGEN ACQUIS

A. Sources of Schengen law	13
B. Formal requirements	14
C. Substantive requirements	15
D. Temporal scope	18

IX

E. Issuance	19
F. Extensions	19
I. Extension via Art. 33(1) Visa Code	19
II. Extension via Art. 33(2) Visa Code	20
III. Extension via § 6(2) Residence Act	20
IV. Multiple consecutive extensions	20

CHAPTER 4

VISA-EXEMPTED ENTRY

A. Exemptions for EU/EEA nationals	23
I. Citizens of EU/EEA nationals	24
II. Family members and close persons to EU/EEA citizens	25
1. Family members of EU/EEA citizens	25
a) Classification of family members	26
b) Entry requirements of family members	26
c) Gainful activity of family members	26
2. Persons close to EU/EEA citizens	27
a) Qualification of close persons	27
b) Entry requirements of close persons	28
c) Gainful activity of close persons	28
3. Long-term residency of family members and close persons	28
B. Exemptions for nationals of Annex II EU Visa Regulation	29
I. Nationals pursuant to Annex II EU Visa Regulation	29
II. De facto entry requirements	30
III. Extension of visa-free stays for visa-exempted nationals	31
C. Exemptions for holders of a visa issued by Schengen states	32
D. Exemptions for nationals of ‘best friend’ states	33
E. Exemptions due to bilateral agreements	33
F. Exemptions due to the Residence Ordinance	34
I. Recognised refugees	34
II. Public officials	34
III. Members and staff of intergovernmental organisations	35
IV. Cross-border commuters	35
V. Schoolchildren	36
VI. Civilian aviation personnel	36
VII. Naval pilots and maritime personnel	36
VIII. Civilian personnel of international inland waterway transport	37
IX. Airport transit	37
X. Representatives of foreign states	37
XI. Swiss nationals	38
XII. Rescue personnel	38
XIII. Inter-territorial transit	38
G. Exemptions for EU Blue Card holders	39

CHAPTER 5 CONVERSIONS TO LONG-TERM RESIDENCE TITLES AFTER ENTRY

A. Waiver of duty to depart due to § 5 Residence Act	40
B. Waiver of duty to depart due to § 39 Residence Ordinance	41
I. Applicants in possession of a national residence title	42
II. Applicants with an outdated visa exemption	42
III. Applicants on the positive list as well as Schengen visa holders	43
IV. Applicants with a residence title issued by another Schengen state	44
V. Applicants with an EU Blue Card issued by another Member State	45
VI. Applicants with an ICT- or REST-related residence title	45
VII. Applicants for family reunification or seasonal work	46
C. Waiver of duty to depart due to § 41 Residence Ordinance	46

CHAPTER 6 GAINFUL ACTIVITY DURING SHORT-TERM STAYS

A. Definition of gainful activity	50
B. Admission of gainful activities during short-term stays	50
I. Business-related stays	52
1. Executive employees and institutional representatives	52
2. Business travellers	52
a) Business trip according to § 16 no. 1 Employment Ordinance	53
b) Business trip according to § 16 no. 2 Employment Ordinance	53
c) Business trip according to § 16 no. 3 Employment Ordinance	54
d) Privileges for business travellers	54
II. Specific occupations	55
1. Staff in science, research and development	55
2. Civil and religious service, summer school, work and travel	56
3. Internships	56
4. Advanced vocational training programs	56
5. Media, press and journalism	56
6. Contracts for work and materials	57
7. Driver personnel	57
8. Scientists, sportspersons, artists	58
9. Music, media and television	58
10. Athletes, coaches, auxiliary staff	58
11. Models	59
12. Tour guides	59
13. Interpreters	59
14. Household personnel	59
15. Athletes competing in international tournaments	59
16. Offshore facility personnel	60
17. Temporary provision of services	60
a) Length and possibility of extension	60
b) Long-term residence permits for the purpose of services	60
18. Occupations with regular transit	61
a) Civilian aviation personnel	61
b) Naval pilots and maritime personnel	61

c) Civilian personnel of international inland waterway transport .	62
d) Airport transit	62
e) Representatives of foreign states	62
f) Swiss nationals	63
g) Rescue personnel	63
h) Inter-territorial transit	63
i) Cross-border transport drivers	63
j) Seasonal and short-term contingent workers	63
C. Consequences of non-compliance	64

CHAPTER 7 INTRA-CORPORATE TRANSFERS

A. Intra-corporate transfers by virtue of the ICT Directive	65
I. Personal scope	66
1. Executive employees	66
2. Specialist professionals	67
3. Trainees	67
II. Short-term mobility for up to 90 days yearly	68
1. Formal notification procedure	68
2. Content of formal notification	69
3. Grounds for refusal	70
4. Privileges for beneficiaries of short-term mobility under the ICT Directive	70
III. Mobile ICT Card for 90 to 180 days yearly	71
1. Formal application procedure	71
2. Substantive requirements	72
3. Privileges for holders of Mobile ICT Cards	72
IV. ICT Card for 90 days up to three years	73
1. ICT Card for executive employees and specialist professionals	73
2. ICT Card for trainees	74
3. Grounds for refusal	74
4. Privileges for holders of Mobile ICT Cards	75
B. Intra-corporate transfers by virtue of the Residence Act	75
I. Secondments of academics and seasoned professionals	75
II. Secondments of other skilled workers	76
III. Formal procedure	76

CHAPTER 8 LONG-TERM RESIDENCY FOR BUSINESS, EMPLOYMENT, AND EDUCATION

A. Application procedure	82
I. Competent authority	82
II. Necessary documentation	83
III. Formal consent of local visa authorities	84
1. Internal procedure	84
2. Exceptions	84

a) Scientists	85
b) Researchers	85
c) Activities not qualified as employed	85
IV. Formal consent of the Federal Employment Agency	85
1. Conditions of employment	86
2. Priority of domestic workforce	87
3. Other grounds for refusal	87
4. Preliminary consent procedure	88
V. Accelerated visa procedure	89
1. Eligibility	89
a) Vocationally educated skilled workers	90
b) Academically educated skilled workers	91
c) Otherwise qualified persons	91
d) Family members	91
2. Procedure	91
VI. Final decision	92
B. General visa requirements	92
I. Adequate financial coverage	92
II. Sufficient health insurance coverage	93
III. Ascertainment of identity	94
IV. Passport or passport substitute	94
V. Opposing interest of the Federal Republic of Germany	94
VI. Absence of public interest in deportation	95
VII. Waivers	96
C. Academic enrolment	96
I. Full time enrolment	96
1. Timeframes	97
2. Gainful employment	97
3. Another purpose of stay	97
II. Conditional offers and part time enrolment	97
III. Search for academic enrolment	98
IV. Beneficiaries of international protection	99
V. Follow up residence titles	99
D. School education and language courses	100
I. Language course attendance	100
II. School exchange programmes	100
III. Attendance at international schools	101
E. Internships	101
I. Preparatory internships for academic enrolment	103
II. Voluntary internship during or after academic enrolment	103
III. Compulsory internship during academic enrolment abroad	104
IV. Internship for the purpose of in-company vocational education	104
V. Internship for the purpose of subsequent recognition of a foreign professional qualification	105
VI. Job-shadowing	105
VII. Other internship forms	106
F. Residence rights for subsequent recognition as a skilled worker	106
I. Training measures in regulated professions	107

1. In-company training measures in regulated professions	108
2. Educational training measures in regulated professions	108
3. Admission of additional gainful employment	109
II. Qualified applicants with job offers and employer sponsorship	110
III. Intergovernmental transfer agreements	112
IV. Examinations	112
V. Qualification assessment	112
VI. Follow-up residency	113
G. Apprenticeships, vocational and educational training	113
I. In-company apprenticeships and advanced vocational training	114
II. Educational apprenticeships	114
III. Common provisions	114
IV. Search for an apprenticeship	116
H. Vocationally educated skilled workers	117
I. Necessity for consent from the Federal Employment Agency	118
II. Recognition procedure	118
III. Substantive requirements	118
I. EU Blue Card for highly qualified skilled workers	119
I. Requirements	120
1. Applicants with higher and tertiary education	121
a) Recognition of academic degrees	121
b) Minimum remuneration for shortage occupations and young professionals	123
c) Minimum remuneration for standard occupations	125
2. Applicants with higher professional skills	126
a) Recognition of professional experience	126
b) Minimum salary for standard occupations	127
3. Employment appropriate to the qualification	127
4. Grounds for refusal	128
II. Advantages	128
1. Eased change of occupation	128
2. Privileges for family members	129
3. Eased short-term intra-EU mobility	129
4. Eased mid-term intra-EU mobility	130
5. Eased long-term intra-EU mobility	130
6. Enhanced prospects for permanent residence rights	131
J. Applicants with extensive professional experience	131
K. Academically educated skilled workers	133
L. Points-based visa for job seekers	135
I. Application procedure	135
II. Language proficiency	135
III. Mandatory qualifications	136
IV. Points catalogue	137
V. Validity and additional employment	138
M. Researchers and scientists	139
I. Visa-free short-term stays for researchers and scientists under national law	139

II. Mobility under the REST Directive	140
1. Short-term mobility for researchers and scientists (90 to 180 days per year)	141
2. Medium-term mobility for researchers and scientists (180 and more days per year)	142
3. Long-term residence permits for researchers and scientists	143
N. Specific occupations	143
I. Executive personnel	144
II. Specialised professionals	145
III. Managing directors and board members	146
IV. Teaching and scientific staff, engineers and technicians	147
V. IT professionals	147
VI. Speciality chefs	149
VII. Language teachers	149
VIII. Athletes, coaches and auxiliary staff	150
IX. Artists and entertainers	152
X. Media, press and journalism	153
XI. Models	154
XII. Nursing assistants	154
XIII. Au pairs	154
O. Self-employment and freelance businesses	155
I. General notes	155
II. Determination of self-employment	156
III. Self-employed commerce	157
IV. Self-employed freelance businesses	158
V. Self-employed endeavours backed by funding	159
P. Civil servants	159
Q. Extraordinary circumstances	160
I. Policy interest	160
II. Justified cases	160

CHAPTER 9 PERMANENT RESIDENCY

A. Skilled workers	162
B. EU Blue Card holders	163
C. Highly qualified skilled workers	163
D. Permanent residence by virtue of EU law	164
E. Permanent residence permit for other applicants	164

CHAPTER 10 PRIVILEGED NATIONALS

A. Nationals listed in § 41(1) Residence Ordinance ('best friend' states)	166
B. Nationals listed in § 41(2) Residence Ordinance	166

C. Nationals listed in § 26(1) Employment Ordinance	167
D. Nationals listed in § 26(2) Employment Ordinance (Western Balkan States)	168
E. Swiss nationals including family members	169
F. Turkish nationals including family members	170
I. Visa-free entry for temporary service providers	170
II. Initial issuance of a residence permit for the purpose of employment and business	172
III. Extensions of residence permits for the purpose of employment and business	172
IV. Privileges for family members	173

CHAPTER 11 OBLIGATIONS TO COOPERATE

A. Obligations imposed on employers	174
I. Assessment obligations	174
II. Documentation obligations	174
III. Notification obligations	175
B. Obligations imposed on foreigners	177
I. General notification obligations	177
II. Notification obligations for ICT Card holders	179
III. Notification obligations in case of early termination	179

CHAPTER 12 COMPLIANCE AND SANCTIONS

A. Criminal sanctions	181
B. Administrative sanctions	182
C. Civil sanctions	183
D. Enforcement	184

CHAPTER 13 LEGAL REMEDIES

A. Lack of judicial review against visa denials issued at the border	185
B. Judicial review against decisions of consular representations	186
I. Remonstrance procedure	187
II. Remedial procedure before administrative courts	188
C. Judicial review against decisions of inbound authorities	191
D. Interim remedies	192