

Contents

1	Olympic Bids in the Past	1
1.1	Outline of the Issue	1
1.2	Significance of this Work	2
1.3	Aim and Research Questions	3
2	An Analytical-hermeneutic Methodology	5
2.1	Description of the Method	5
2.2	Justification of the Method	6
2.3	Selection of the Literature	6
3	Referenda in Political Science and Sport Governance	9
3.1	Definition of an Ethico-political Evaluation	9
3.2	Democracy—a Political Framework	10
3.2.1	Definition of Democracy	10
3.2.2	Participatory Democracy	11
3.2.3	Representative Democracy	11
3.2.4	Further Types and Their Interplay	12
3.3	Referendum—a Direct-democratic Instrument	13
3.3.1	Definition of a Referendum	13
3.3.2	Types of Referenda	13
3.3.3	Motives to Call a Referendum	14
3.4	Arguments for and Against Referenda	15
3.4.1	Ethico-Political Considerations	15
3.4.2	Effective Participation	16
3.4.3	Equity and Inclusion	19
3.4.4	Legitimacy, Accountability and Transparency	19
3.4.5	On the Dichotomy of the Outcome	20

3.5	Olympic Bidding Process	21
3.5.1	Differences in Democratic and Authoritarian Countries ...	21
3.5.2	Olympic-related Referenda Worldwide	22
3.5.3	Olympic-related Referenda in Germany's Governmental System	23
3.6	Olympic Games Bid Past and Future Trends	24
3.6.1	A Brief History of Olympic Bids	24
3.6.2	Agenda 2020 and the New Norm	25
3.6.3	Olympic Situation in Germany and Current Strategy of the DOSB	27
4	Analysis and Discussion of the Issue	31
4.1	Contextual Transition from Previous Findings to Following Reflection	31
4.2	On the Necessity of a German Olympic Referendum	32
4.2.1	Advantages and Disadvantages	32
4.2.2	Political Perspective	33
4.2.3	Civil Perspective	36
4.2.4	DOSB Perspective	44
4.3	On the Legitimacy of a German Olympic Referendum	49
4.3.1	Democratic Legitimacy	49
4.3.2	Evaluating Legitimacy of an Olympic Referendum	50
4.3.3	Theory-practice Gap of Legitimacy	53
5	Limitations of the Work	55
5.1	Clarification of Delimitations	55
5.2	Statement of Limitations	55
6	Final Conclusion	57
6.1	Conclusion of Analysis and Discussion	57
6.2	Raising Awareness for Potential Opportunity Costs	58
7	Implications and Further Outlook	61
7.1	Implications for Stakeholders—Deciding Against a Referendum	61
7.2	Implications for Stakeholders—Deciding for a Referendum	62
	References	63