

Acknowledgements	xi
List of Illustrations	xiii
Foreword	xvii
Introduction	I
I Dealing with Displacement	9
ANNA NYBURG
1 'A Piece of Rather Formidable News': Motherhood in British Exile	11
MICHAL SHAPIRA
2 The Psychoanalyst and Jewish Refugee Kate Friedlander (1902–1949) and Her Contribution to the Study of Children in Britain	25
CHARMIAN BRINSON
3 ' In loco parentis ': The Work of the Refugee Youth Organizations, Young Austria and Free German Youth, in Wartime Britain	39
LUCY STONE
4 'Michelle comprend le malheur': Reading Writings by Children Displaced in the Nazi Era	51

ANTHONY GRENVILLE

- 5 Childhood Trauma as Represented in Literary Works by Jewish Refugees from Nazism in Britain 67

II Children in Art 85

MONICA BOHM-DUCHEN

- 6 Innocence Sullied, Innocence Redeemed: Images of Childhood in the Work of Emigré Artists in the UK after 1933 87

JULIA WINCKLER

- 7 That Baby: Wolf Suschitzky's and Liselotte Frankl's
Pioneering Children's Photo Story Book 109

INES SCHLENKER

- 8 Foreign Inspirations: Children's Book Illustrations by Emigré
Artists 127

RACHEL DICKSON

- 9 From Berlin to the Bodley Head: Renate Meyer (1930–
2014): The Rediscovery of a Neglected Children's Book
Author, Illustrator and Artist 147

III Children in Education and Play 167

ELIZABETH LAMLE

- 10 Intergenerational Perspectives on Migration in the 1930s: The Letters of Lucian and Lucie Freud 169

ROLF LAVEN

- 11 A Pioneer of Children's Art Pedagogy: Franz Čížek and His Influence in the English-Speaking World 187

SIÂN ROBERTS

- 12 Hilde Jarecki, Social Pedagogy and the Transformation of Society through Early Years Learning 213

Bibliography 233

Notes on Contributors 247

Index 253