

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Foreword  | v   |
| Translator's Preface  | vii |
| Introduction  | 1   |
| 1. What is "Theology of the New Testament?"  | 1   |
| 2. The Problem of a "Biblical Theology"  | 4   |
| A. Redemption and Liberation—The Theology of Paul                               | 9   |
| a) Preliminary Methodological Comments   | 10  |
| b) Sources   | 11  |
| 1. Secondary Sources   | 11  |
| 2. Authentic Pauline Letters   | 15  |
| c) Later Influences  | 17  |
| I. History-of-Religion Presuppositions— Prepauline Elements in Pauline Theology | 19  |
| a) Judaism   | 21  |
| 1. The Use of the Old Testament  | 25  |
| Excursus: The Testimony Book Hypothesis  | 28  |
| 2. The Sophia Tradition  | 37  |
| 3. The Jewish Ethic  | 45  |
| b) Gentile-Hellenistic Influences  | 50  |
| 1. The Mystery Religions   | 52  |
| 2. Stoicism  | 55  |
| 3. Gnosis (the Adam Myth)  | 58  |
| c) Prepauline Christian Traditions   | 64  |
| 1. Romans 1:3b-4a  | 66  |
| 2. Philippians 2:6-11  | 69  |
| On the History of Research  | 71  |
| 3. 1 Corinthians 15:3a-5a  | 74  |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| II. The Person of Jesus Christ                                  | 78  |
| a) The Names of the Christ   | 79         |
| 1. Son of David  | 79         |
| 2. Son of God  | 81         |
| 3. Kyrios  | 84         |
| 4. Christ  | 91         |
| 5. Jesus   | 94         |
| b) Jesus and Paul  | 95         |
| 1. History of Research   | 96         |
| 2. The Witness of the Historical Jesus                                 | 99         |
| 3. Jesus in the Kerygma of Paul  | 101        |
| c) The Cross and Resurrection of Jesus Christ                          | 105        |
| d) God and Christ  | 110        |
| III. The Liberation through Christ                              | 116 |
| a) Liberation from the Powers of the Flesh, Sin and Death              | 116        |
| 1. The Formula "In Christ"   | 117        |
| 2. The Power of the Flesh  | 123        |
| 3. The Power of Sin and Death  | 127        |
| 4. The "I" in Conflict   | 133        |
| b) Justification   | 138        |
| 1. The Pauline Understanding of the Law                                | 140        |
| 1. The Meaning of the Law for Unbelievers                              | 143        |
| 2. The Meaning of the Law for Believers                                | 144        |
| 3. Ἐπαγγελία and Νόμος (Promise and Law)                               | 145        |
| 2. The Victory over the Ruinous Power of the Law through Justification | 146        |
| α) The Problem of Prepauline Traditions                                | 146        |
| β) The Righteousness of God  | 149        |
| γ) The Event of Justification  | 152        |
| c) The Granting of Freedom   | 156        |
| 1. Proclamation and Apostleship  | 156        |
| 2. Baptism   | 160        |
| 3. The Eucharist   | 165        |
| d) Faith   | 174        |
| IV. The Community of the Free—The Church                        | 178 |
| a) The Church as Community   | 178        |
| 1. Ecclesiological Predicates  | 179        |
| 2. σῶμα Χριστοῦ  | 182        |
| 3. Office and Spirit   | 186        |
| α) Prophets  | 188        |
| β) Teachers  | 190        |

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| γ) Leaders (προϊστάμενοι)  | 191     |
| δ) Bishops and Deacons   | 192     |
| b) Church and World  | 194     |
| 1. Indicative and Imperative in Ecclesiological Context  | 194     |
| 2. Faith and the Orders of the World   | 196     |
| α) The Christian and the State (Romans 13:1–7)   | 197     |
| β) Acceptance and Renunciation of the Legal System(1 Corinthians 6:1–11)                     | 202     |
| c) Israel and the Church   | 203     |
| V. The Future of the Free   | 209     |
| B. Early Christian Tradition to theComposition of the Gospels                    | 217 |
| I. The Proclamation of theComing One—John the Baptist                                | 217     |
| a) Sources   | 218     |
| b) John's Message and Baptism  | 221     |
| c) John and Jesus  | 226     |
| II. The Kingdom of God—Jesus  | 227     |
| a) Sources for the Historical Jesus  | 227     |
| b) History of Research   | 230     |
| c) Reconstructing Pictures of the Historical Jesus—Four Models                               | 243     |
| 1. The Apocalyptic Model   | 243     |
| 2. Jesus as Wisdom Teacher   | 244     |
| 3. The Pauline-Lutheran Model  | 246     |
| 4. Jesus as Revolutionary  | 247     |
| d) The Possibility and Theological Importance ofReconstructing the Life and Message of Jesus | 249     |
| e) The Basic Structure of Jesus' Message   | 253     |
| 1. The Time and Location of Jesus' Life  | 253     |
| 2. History-of-Religion Perspectives  | 254     |
| 3. The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God  | 255     |
| 4. The Ethic of Jesus  | 259     |
| 5. Jesus and the Church  | 261     |
| III. The Palestinian and the Hellenistic Church   | 263     |
| a) The Origin of Christian Faith as Faith in theResurrection of Jesus                        | 263     |

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| The Petrine Tradition   | 264     |
| Stories of the Empty Tomb                                       | 265     |
| 1. Appearance Stories  | 266     |
| 2. The Historical Location of the Origin of the Resurrection Tradition | 268     |
| 3. Theological Interpretation  | 270     |
| b) The Palestinian Church  | 275     |
| 1. Sources   | 275     |
| 2. Historical Situation  | 276     |
| 3. Theology  | 278     |
| α) Christology   | 278     |
| β) Ecclesiology  | 281     |
| γ) Stance towards the Law  | 288     |
| c) The Hellenistic Church  | 292     |
| 1. Sources   | 293     |
| 2. Historical and Theological Prior Questions                          | 293     |
| 3. Theological Conceptions in the Hellenistic Church                   | 298     |
| α) Christology   | 298     |
| β) Ecclesiology  | 305     |
| IV. Directives of the Son of Man—The Sayings Collection         | 310     |
| a) Reconstruction and Origin of the Q Source                           | 310     |
| b) The Person of Jesus   | 313     |
| c) The Message of Jesus  | 315     |
| d) The Community's Understanding                                       | 317     |
| C. The Way of Jesus Christ—The Synoptic Gospels             | 319 |
| I. Fundamental Problems of Gospel Composition                   | 321     |
| a) The Relation of Kerygma and History as a Redaction-critical Problem | 321     |
| b) The Problem of the Delay of the Parousia                            | 327     |
| 1. The Presynoptic Tradition   | 328     |
| 2. Mark  | 330     |
| 3. Matthew   | 332     |
| 4. Luke  | 334     |
| c) The Term εὐαγγέλιον   | 336     |
| 1. The Presynoptic Tradition   | 337     |
| 2. Mark  | 339     |
| 3. Matthew   | 341     |
| 4. Luke  | 342     |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| II. Secret Epiphany—The Evangelist Mark              | 343 |
| a) The Messianic Secret Theory                              | 343        |
| 1. The Textual Data: Revelation and Hiddenness              | 344        |
| 2. Topological Conceptions; the Parable Theory              | 346        |
| 3. The Tradition-history Explanation                        | 348        |
| 4. Apologetic Explanation                                   | 349        |
| 5. The Hiddenness Motif as a Historical Formative Element   | 350        |
| 6. The Paradox of Faith                                     | 351        |
| b) The Person of Jesus                                      | 352        |
| 1. Basic Issues   | 352        |
| 2. Christological Titles                                    | 354        |
| 3. The Way of Jesus   | 359        |
| 4. The Significance of the Person of Jesus for Faith        | 361        |
| α) Atoning Death  | 362        |
| β) The Jesus-event as Saving Event                          | 363        |
| γ) The Authority of the Jesus-event                         | 364        |
| III. The Way of Righteousness—The Evangelist Matthew | 364 |
| a) Historicizing the Traditional Material                   | 365        |
| b) The Person of Jesus                                      | 371        |
| 1. Idealization   | 371        |
| 2. Christological Titles                                    | 373        |
| α) Son of David   | 373        |
| β) Lord   | 375        |
| γ) Other Christological Predicates                          | 376        |
| 3. The Message of Jesus                                     | 377        |
| α) Didache and Kerygma                                      | 377        |
| β) The Ethicizing of the Traditional Material               | 378        |
| γ) Δικαιοσύνη and Ἀγάπη                                     | 382        |
| δ) The Grounding of the Message of Jesus                    | 385        |
| 4. Jesus as Model   | 387        |
| c) The Church   | 388        |
| 1. The Foundation   | 388        |
| 2. The Church as Institution                                | 389        |
| IV. The Midst of Time—The Evangelist Luke            | 392 |
| a) The Lucan Understanding of History                       | 393        |
| 2. The Periodization of Salvation History                   | 396        |
| 3. Salvation History and World History                      | 400        |
| b) The Time of Jesus (Christology)                          | 402        |
| 1. Christological Titles                                    | 402        |
| 2. The Way of Jesus   | 404        |
| 3. The Death and Resurrection of Jesus                      | 408        |

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| c) The Time of the Church (Ecclesiology)                           | 410     |
| 1. The Apostolic Office of the Twelve                              | 411     |
| 2. The Way of the Church   | 412     |
| α) The Church and Judaism  | 412     |
| β) The Proclamation  | 413     |
| γ) The Spirit  | 414     |
| 3. The Apocalyptic Future  | 415     |
| Concluding Remarks   | 416     |
| D. Truth and Love—The Johannine School                  | 419 |
| Preliminary Remarks on Chronology                           | 419     |
| I. The Presbyter's Letters                                  | 423     |
| a) The Apocalyptic Horizon   | 425     |
| b) The Doctrine of Christ  | 428     |
| 1. Fellowship with God   | 429     |
| 2. Truth   | 429     |
| 3. Love  | 431     |
| c) Dualism   | 432     |
| d) The Community's Self-understanding                              | 433     |
| II. The First Letter of John                            | 434 |
| a) Introduction  | 434     |
| b) The "Apostle" and the Tradition ἀπ' ἀρχῆς                       | 435     |
| c) The Opponents in the First Letter of John                       | 437     |
| d) Fellowship with God   | 440     |
| 1. "Abiding in God" and Other Designations for Fellowship with God | 440     |
| 2. The Realization of Fellowship with God in Freedom from Sin      | 445     |
| 3. The Realization of Fellowship with God in Brotherly Love        | 447     |
| e) Ecclesiology and Ethic  | 449     |
| III. The Gospel of John                                 | 455 |
| a) Introduction  | 456     |
| b) Christology   | 467     |
| 1. The Prologue (1:1–18)   | 467     |
| Structure   | 469     |
| Interpretation  | 476     |
| α) The Universal Cosmic Significance of the Logos                  | 476     |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| β) The Johannine Adaptation   | 477        |
| γ) The Incarnation  | 478        |
| 2. The Christological Titles  | 484        |
| c) The Revelation   | 488        |
| Conceptuality   | 488        |
| 1. The World (Cosmos)   | 488        |
| Excursus: The "Jews" in the Gospel of John                                   | 490        |
| 2. The Judgment (Crisis)  | 496        |
| 3. Life   | 498        |
| d) The Church   | 501        |
| Excursus: The Paraclete in the Gospel of John                                | 505        |
| IV. The Coming of the Lamb—The Apocalyptic John                              | 515 |
| a) Introduction   | 517        |
| 1. Relation to Jewish Apocalyptic   | 517        |
| 2. Provenance and Date of Composition   | 520        |
| 3. Sources  | 522        |
| 4. Composition  | 522        |
| b) Christology  | 523        |
| c) Ecclesiology   | 530        |
| 1. Situation  | 531        |
| 2. Predications   | 531        |
| 3. Office and Spirit  | 533        |
| 4. Encouragement and Warning (The Messages to theSeven Churches)                | 536        |
| 5. Present and Future   | 538        |
| Present Salvation   | 538        |
| Future Salvation  | 540        |
| d) Ethics   | 543        |
| E. On the Way to the Early Catholic Church—theDeuteropauline Literature | 547 |
| I. Christ, the Head of the Church—The Letter to theColossians           | 548 |
| a) Introduction   | 549        |
| b) Christology  | 550        |
| 1. The Christ Hymn Colossians 1:15–20   | 550        |
| Content   | 552        |
| Location in the History of Religions   | 552        |
| The Author's Interpretation  | 554        |
| 2. Christological Titles  | 556        |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| c) Ecclesiology   | 557 |
| 1. The Body of Christ   | 557 |
| 2. The Apostle  | 558 |
| 3. Baptism and the New Life   | 562 |
| II. Attaining the Maturity of Christ—    The Letter to the Ephesians      | 565 |
| a) Christology  | 566 |
| b) Ecclesiology   | 568 |
| c) Eschatology  | 575 |
| III. Sound Doctrine—The Pastoral Letters                                       | 576 |
| a) The Situation  | 577 |
| b) Christology  | 580 |
| 1. The Christ Hymn 1 Timothy 3:16   | 580 |
| 2. God and Christ   | 582 |
| c) Ecclesiology   | 586 |
| 1. The Apostle  | 586 |
| 2. The Church   | 589 |
| IV. Against the False Eschatological Teachers—Second    Thessalonians     | 594 |
| a) The Question of Authenticity   | 595 |
| b) Eschatology  | 598 |
| c) The Apostolic Norm   | 601 |
| F. A Message with a Universal Claim—The Catholic    Letters               | 605 |
| I. Christ, the True High Priest—The Epistle to the Hebrews                     | 605 |
| a) The Christological Prelude: The Cosmic Exaltation ofthe Preexistent Son of God | 606 |
| 1. Temporal Aspects (1:1–2a)  | 607 |
| 2. Cosmological Aspects (1:2b–3b)   | 607 |
| 3. Soteriological Aspects (1:3c)  | 608 |
| 4. Inthronization (1:3d–5)  | 609 |
| b) Christology: The Heavenly High Priest  | 610 |
| c) Ecclesiology: The Wandering People of God  | 616 |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| II. Suffering with Christ—The First Letter of Peter                    | 620 |
| a) Authorship   | 622        |
| b) Christology  | 626        |
| 1. The Christological Traditions  | 628        |
| 2. The Descent of Christ into the Realm of the Dead                           | 634        |
| c) Ecclesiology   | 637        |
| d) On the Paulinism of 1 Peter  | 639        |
| III. Orientation to the Beginnings—The Letter of Jude and Second Peter | 641 |
| a) Literary-Historical Presuppositions  | 642        |
| b) The Faith Delivered Once for All   | 644        |
| c) An Apology for Early Christian Eschatology                                 | 648        |
| IV. The Perfect Law of Freedom—The Letter of James                     | 654 |
| a) The Relation of Composition and Tradition History                          | 654        |
| b) The Foundation for Ethics—The Perfect Law of Freedom                       | 663        |
| c) Faith and Works  | 669        |
| d) Poor and Rich  | 676        |
| General Bibliography   | 683 |
| Index  | 687 |