

Studien zu Zeitgeschichte
und Sicherheitspolitik

Studies in Contemporary History and Security Policy

14

edited by Theodor H. Winkler, Anja H. Ebnöther and
Ernst M. Felberbauer

6th International Security Forum

Proceedings of the Conference

Peter Lang

Table of Contents

Preface	9
WELCOME ADDRESS	11
INTRODUCTION	15
KEYNOTE ADDRESSES	21
Security Challenges – A Swiss Perspective	23
Globalization, Human Security and Iraq	29
Ways of Countering WMDs: Pre-emptive War and Counter-Proliferation, or International Co-operation and Disarmament	37
What Approaches for Developing a New Security Agenda for Europe and the Balkans?	47
TOPICS: FIRST PART	51
The End of – or a New Start for a Multilateral International Order?	53
What Agendas for Europe?	59
Human Security – A New Measure of Global Security or a New Agenda for Global Action?	63
WORKSHOPS	69
Biological Weapons – Easy to Develop, Difficult to Deploy?	71
Information Risks and Countermeasures: Problems, Prospects, and Challenges of Securing the Information Infrastructure	77
After 9/11: Perspectives on Counter-Terrorism	83

Bridging the Transatlantic Divide – Perspectives on Homeland Security and CIP	87
Content and Data Management in E-Learning – Current Issues in Reusability, Privacy and Security	93
Learning Without Teaching? – E-Learning in International Relations and Security Policy	99
Quel Avenir? The European Security and Defence Policy of the European Union	105
Caught in a Quagmire: Terrorism in Russia and Government Responses	111
The Wider Middle East: After Iraq and the War on Terror	117
Post 9/11: Strategic Consequence in the Mediterranean	121
Security Sector Governance in the Middle East: Opportunities and Constraints for Reform	125
Security Sector Governance in West Africa: The Sub-Regional Parliamentary Dimension	129
Challenges to International Humanitarian Law	133
Security Challenges in Carrying out Humanitarian Activities	139
Taking Stock of the Fight Against Landmines and the Way Ahead	143
The ‘Brahimi Report’ on Peace Operations: Four Years on	149
Armed Groups and Small Arms in West Africa: Misuse and Engagement	155
Private Guns – Collective Responses: Attempts at Weapons Collection in the Western Balkans	159
Co-operative Threat Reduction in a Changing Security Environment: Achievements and Prospects	161
The Politico-Military Dimension of the OSCE: Arms Control and Conflict Management Issues	167
Beyond Command and Control: Democratic Accountability of Nuclear Weapons	173

Indivisible Security: Combating Violence Against Women and Children	181
Private Military Companies – The Business of War	187
Post-Conflict Reconstruction (PCR) of the Security Sector: Comparing Country Experiences	195
TOPICS: SECOND PART	199
Terrorism – The New Global Challenge in the 21 st Century	201
Sustainable Development and Good Governance – Providing the Conditions for Security and Stability	207
Knowledge Portals in Support of Security Co-operation	211
KEYNOTE ADDRESSES	215
Making Sustainable Development Work for Children	217
Science, Information Society and Security	223
CLOSING REMARKS	237
Background Information	243
Abbreviations	245