EDITED BY
DAVID A. SCHULTZ
LIGHTS, CAMERA, CAMPAIGN!
MEDIA, POLITICS, AND POLITICAL ADVERTISING

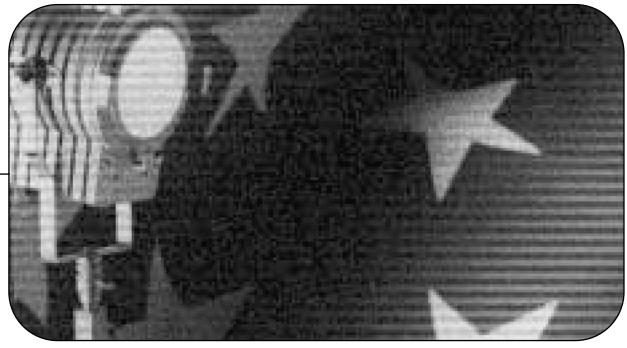

Table of Contents

Note to the Reader vii

Introduction: Selling Candidates and Soap ix
David A. Schultz

1 | Creating Effective Political Ads 1
Arthur Sanders

2 | Developing "Paid Media" Strategies: Media Consultants and Political Advertising 21
Stephen K. Medvic

3 | Two Cheers for Negative Ads 45
Christopher J. Dolan

4 | Can a Voter in New York Make a Candidate Lose in California? An Experimental Test of the Release of Early Election Results on Voter Turnout 73
Geoffrey D. Peterson

5 | Packaging the Governor: Television Advertising in the 2000 Elections . .101
Christopher A. Cooper & H. Gibbs Knotts

6 | Message Tailoring in Spanish: Courting Latino Voters in the 2000 Presidential Advertising Campaign 121
Brendan J. Doherty & Melissa Cully Anderson

7 | The Perfect Storm of Politics: Media and Advertising during the 2002 U.S. Senate Campaign(s) in Minnesota 149
Amy E. Jasperson

8 | Bowling with Erskine and Down Home with Dole: Re-packaging the Candidates in the 2002 Senate Race in North Carolina 189
Timothy Vercellotti

9 | From Saxophones to Schwarzenegger: Entertainment Politics on Late-night Television 215
David A. Schultz

10 | Lights, Camera, and an Action Hero! Arnold Schwarzenegger and the Media Frenzy in the California Recall 239
David L. Schecter

11 | Political Advertising in Canada 273
Paul Nesbitt-Larking & Jonathan Rose

12 | Moving Voters in the 2000 Presidential Campaign: Local Visits, Local Media 301
David C. King & David Morehouse

List of Contributors 319