
Contents

Editorial	Implicit Attitude Measures Melanie C. Steffens and Kai J. Jonas	1
Original Articles	Three Indirect Tasks Assessing Implicit Threat Associations and Behavioral Response Tendencies: Test-Retest Reliability and Validity Andrea Reinecke, Eni S. Becker, and Mike Rinck	4
	Easier When Done Than Said!: Implicit Self-Esteem Predicts Observed or Spontaneous Behavior, but Not Self-Reported or Controlled Behavior Almut Rudolph, Michela Schröder-Abé, Michael Riketta, and Astrid Schütz	12
	Convergence of Direct, Indirect, and Objective Risk-Taking Measures in Gambling: The Moderating Role of Impulsiveness and Self-Control Friederike X. R. Dislich, Axel Zinkernagel, Tuulia M. Ortner, and Manfred Schmitt	20
	The Divergence of Implicit and Explicit Consumer Evaluations: A Multimeasure Investigation Amy Summerville, Brendon Hsieh, and Nick Harrington	28
	Using Community Data to Test the Discriminant Validity of Ethnic/Racial Group IATs Irene V. Blair, Charles M. Judd, Edward P. Havranek, and John F. Steiner	36
	Prejudice Implicit Association Test Effects: The Role of Self-Related Heuristics Maria Popa-Roch and Florian Delmas	44
Research Spotlight	Prejudiced or Just Smart?: Intelligence as a Confounding Factor in the IAT Effect Rul von Stülpnagel and Melanie C. Steffens	51
Opinion	Implicit Measures of Social Cognition: Common Themes and Unresolved Questions Nilanjana Dasgupta	54
Calls for Papers	“Torture”: A Topical Issue of the Zeitschrift für Psychologie / Journal of Psychology Guest Editors: Thomas Elbert, Roland Weierstall, and Andreas Maercker	58
	“Prospective Memory”: A Topical Issue of the Zeitschrift für Psychologie / Journal of Psychology Guest Editor: Rebekah E. Smith	59