Foreword	XI
G. Anido, E. J. van Kampen, S. B. Rosalki, M. Rubin
Opening Session: Welcome by the Chairman	XIII
S. B. Rosalki
Introduction	XV
W. Bürgi

Award Lectures

Topic I: Quality Control in Relation to Determination Methods

Considerations on Bilirubin Determination	3
G. Ceriotti
Comparison between Determination Methods	11
L. Havelec
Interlaboratory Quality Control using the Daily Means of Patients Results	21
R. Leclercq
Discussion

Topic II: Quality Control in Relation to Determination Materials, Standards and Controls

Evaluation of some Determination Materials used in the Scandinavian Recommended Methods (S.C.E.) for Determination of Four Enzymes in Blood and the Performance of Control Materials with these Methods	45
W. Gerhardt
The Control of Error and Use of Standardized Reference Samples in Estimation of the True Biological Normal Range	57
A. Hyvärinen
Studies on Alkaline Phosphatases of Different Origin with an External Quality Control Scheme	63
A. P. Jansen

Evaluation of Several Commercial Controls, Correlation between them	71
A. Martinez
Interlaboratory Comparison of both Accuracy and Precision by a Two-Sample Method	85
R. Zender, A. Linder
The World Health Organization-Center for Disease Control Lipid Standardization Program	95
G. R. Cooper
Discussion
 Topic III: Quality Control in Relation to Data Evaluation, Processing and Presentation
The Determination of Assigned Values for Control Specimens	117
D. Stamm
The Role of External Quality Control Schemes in Improving the Quality of Laboratory Results	131
T. P. Whitehead, D. M. Browning, A. Gregory
Computerized Techniques for Quality Control in the Clinical Chemistry Laboratory	143
H. E. Solberg
Systems Analysis of Analytical Procedures as a Means of Improving their Performance	151
T. Aronsson, C.-H. de Verdier, T. Groth
Discussion of the Options Followed in Processing Quality Control Data	159
M. Bailly
Discussion

Richterich Memorial Lecture

Introduction	173
H. Aebi
Seeking the way	175
S. B. Rosalki

NAD – NADH – NADP – NADPH Characterization and Purity Assurance

Plenary Lectures

Quality Requirements for β -NADH and β -NAD	191
W. Gerhardt, G. Kofoed
Studies on the Purity and Storage of NADH	205
M. Härkönen, V. Hänninen, O. Wahlroos, H. Adlercreutz

Free Communications

The Molar Absorption Coefficient (ϵ) of Reduced NAD (NADH)	231
G. N. Bowers, Jr., R. B. McComb, L. W. Bond, R. C. Keech, R. W. Burnett
The Molar Absorption Coefficients of β -Nicotinamide-Adenine Dinucleotide	235
E. Haid, P. Lehmann, J. Ziegenhorn
Stability of NADH Containing Reagent for the Determination of Transaminases on the Greiner Selective Analyzer GSA II	241
H. Küffer, P. Degiampietro
The Contribution of Spectrophotometric Instrument Month to Month Variability to the Precision of Molar Concentration Measurements using the Molar Absorptivity Constant for NADH: Two Years of Spectrophotometric Precision Monitoring using United States National Bureau of Standards Absorbance Standards at 3 Absorbance Levels	249
B. E. Copeland, C. A. Hirsch, D. W. Grisley, A. Doherty, A. Gough
NAD Quality Control: Standardization of Methods for the Selection of an NAD Coenzyme	253
S. Schwartz Riera, C. Pascual Mostaza, E. Canadell Anguera, M. R. Segura Cardona, A. Tirado Canals, A. Casals Torrella
A Convenient Enzyme System for the Evaluation of NADH Preparations	265
J. L. Giegel, J. MacQueen, G. Anido
Clinical Studies of a System for the Evaluation of NADH Purity: Part I	273
A. E. Rappoport, W. D. Gennaro
Clinical Studies of a System for the Evaluation of NADH Purity: Part II	281
J. B. Henry, G. W. Sage
Comparison of Mammalian Tissue Extracts and Evaluation of a System for the Detection of Enzyme Inhibitors in NADH Preparations	291
S. B. Rosalki

Temperature Dependence of Difference-Absorption Coefficients of NADH Minus NAD ⁺ and NADPH Minus NADP ⁺ in the near Ultraviolet	301
Th. Bücher, G. Lusch, H. Krell

Discussion

Hematology Symposium

Plenary Lectures

Quality Control and Hematology I	325
E.J. van Kampen, O. W. van Assendelft
Quality Control and Hematology II	335
O. W. van Assendelft, E.J. van Kampen

Discussion

A First Transatlantic, Live Demonstration of a Computerized Audio-Response Communications System of an Automated Clinical Laboratory	353
A.E. Rappoport, W.D. Gennaro, R.E. Berquist
The First International Symposium on Quality Control, Tokyo	359
T. Kawai
Chairman's Closing Remarks	363
S.B. Rosalki
Award Presentations	365
G. Darnell

International Federation of Clinical Chemistry

The Clinical Laboratory from an International Viewpoint

Session I: Session Chairman: H. Adlercreutz
Discussion Leader: J.L. Giegel

Topic: International Criteria for Clinical Laboratory Materials

International Criteria for Reference Materials	369
J.P. Cali

Table of Contents	IX
International Criteria for Diagnostic Material	385
A.L.Louderback
Acceptability of Quality Control Materials	397
A.L.Babson
A System Approach to Calibration and Quality Control Materials	403
J.L.Giegel
Discussion

Session II: Session Chairman: H.Büttner
Discussion Leader: G.Anido

Topic: International Criteria for Diagnostic Methods

Acceptability of Definitive, Reference and Routine Methods	417
S.S.Brown
Acceptability of Simplified Methods	423
D.Kutter
The Development of Simplified Tests	425
H. Wishinsky
The Acceptability of Enzyme Methods	441
G.N.Bowers, Jr.
Acceptability of Diagnostic Kits	467
G.Vanzetti
Materials and Methods for Health Testing	473
G.Siest, O.Houot, J.Henny
Discussion

Session III: Session Chairman: E.J. van Kampen
Discussion Leader: G. Sims

Topic: International Criteria for Clinical Laboratory Instrumentation

Opening Remarks	499
E.J. van Kampen

National Committee for Clinical Laboratory Standards a Model for Achieving International Clinical Laboratory Consensus Standards	501
R. G. Nadeau

International Requirements for Instrumentation in Clinical Chemistry	507
P.M.G. Broughton, F.L. Mitchell

International Criteria for Determining the Acceptability of Laboratory Instrumentation	515
G. Sims

Discussion

Session IV: Session Chairman: R. Dybkaer
Discussion Leader: H. Bergmeyer

Topic: National Regulations and International Recommendations

The Regulation of Diagnostic Products in the United States	527
E. Evenson

Analysis of Regulations on Clinical Chemistry in the European Community	541
K.F. Lauer

National Regulations and International Recommendations in Laboratory Diagnosis in Socialistic Countries	547
J. Krawczynski

Discussion and Closing Remarks	555
