

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Force and torque sensors

Joint force sensing for unified motor learning A. Mukerjee	3
Modelling the interaction between robot and environment A.A. Goldenberg	17
Pneumatic sensors: Their use and performance in force, tactile and position sensing and in shape recognition A. Romiti	37

II. Tactile sensors

Carbon fibre sensors J.B.C. Davies	59
Tactile geometry for images and normals A. Cameron, R. Daniel, H. Durrant-Whyte	67
A video speed tactile camera P.W. Verbeek, P.T.A. Klaase, A. Theil	79
PANEL: Present and future of tactile sensors P.W. Verbeek	89

III. Acoustic sensors

Acoustic range sensing for robotic control J. Schoenwald	93
SONAIR ultrasonic range finders S. Monchaud	111
Ultrasonic imaging for industrial scene analysis H. Urban	127
Adaptive ultrasonic range finder for robotics J.M. Martín, R. Ceres, J. No and L. Calderón	143

IV. Optical sensors

T. H. 7864 area array Charge-Coupled Device (CCD) image sensor with built-in antiblooming device D. Herault, G. Bouchariat	159
Real time holes location. A step forward in bin picking tasks V. Llario, A.B. Martínez	167
Combined 2-D and 3-D robot vision system P. Levi, L. Vajtá	187
The calibration problem for stereoscopic vision O.D. Faugeras, G. Toscani	195
Non heuristic estimation of object shapes from partial information J.D. Boissonat, O. Monga	215
Parameter estimation in signal processing J. Aguilar	231

V. Other kinds of sensors

Dynamic weighing in a pick-and-place environment D.G. Whitehead, I.M. Bell, D.J. Mulvaney, A. Pugh and P. Sweeting	243
Sensor fusion in certainty grids for mobile robots H.P. Moravec	253
A six degrees of freedom positional deviation sensor for the teaching of robots F. Dessen, J.G. Balchen	277

VI. Applications

Force feedback strategies and their application to assembly H. Van Brussel	295
Application of laser range finder to robot vision Y. Shirai	313

Visual inspection system with qualitative analysis capabilities J. Amat, A. Casals	323
Predictive and estimation schemes in sensor-controlled telerobotics G. Hirzinger	337
List of speakers	359
List of participants	361
