

Survey

List of contributors.....	XIX
Abbreviations.....	XXI

Introduction

Norbert Horn	1
---------------------------	---

Part One: Public Law of Banking and Financial Markets.....5

Chapter One:

The Deutsche Bundesbank and its Legal Regime

Bernd Krauskopf	7
------------------------------	---

Chapter Two:

The Institutional and Legal Framework for the European Monetary Union (EMU)

Norbert Horn	15
---------------------------	----

Chapter Three:

Prudential Supervision of Banks in Germany and in the European Economic Area

Anja Gläser	37
--------------------------	----

Chapter Four:

The German System of Securities and Stock Exchanges

Stefanie Tetz	59
----------------------------	----

Chapter Five:

The Internal Market for Banking and Investment Services

Norbert Horn	69
---------------------------	----

Part Two: Bank-Customer Relationship; Credits and Export Financing.....85

Chapter Six:

Bank-Customer Relationship in German Law and Practice

Harald Herrmann87

Chapter Seven:

The Legal Framework for Prices and Charges in Banking Services

Johannes Köndgen115

Chapter Eight:

Consumer Credits and Other Private Credits in German Law and Practice

Martin Henssler131

Chapter Nine:

Business Credits and Credit Securities in German Law and Practice

Klaus Christian Hübner145

Chapter Ten:

Payment Terms: Letters of Credit

Günther Sattelhak167

Chapter Eleven:

The U.N. Convention on Independent Guarantees and the Lex Mercatoria

Norbert Horn189

Part Three: Annex.....205

Banking Act207

Securities Act301

General Business Conditions339

Index355

Table of Contents

List of contributors	XIX
Abbreviations	XXI
Introduction
Norbert Horn	1
I. Market Economy, Banking, and the Law	1
II. The Public Law of Banking	1
III. The Private Law of Banking	2
IV. International Perspective	3
Part One: Public Law of Banking and Financial Markets.....5
Chapter One:
The Deutsche Bundesbank and its Legal Regime
Bernd Krauskopf	7
I. Introduction	7
II. Organisation of the Deutsche Bundesbank	7
III. Central Bank Functions	9
IV. Objectives of Monetary Policy	9
V. Independence of the Deutsche Bundesbank	10
VI. Cooperation between the Government and the Deutsche Bundesbank	10
VII. Cooperation with the Federal Banking Supervisory Office	11
VIII. Monetary Policy Instruments of the Deutsche Bundesbank	11
IX. Monetary Policy Strategy of the Deutsche Bundesbank	13
X. The Deutsche Bundesbank and the European System of Central Banks	13
Chapter Two:
The Institutional and Legal Framework for the European Monetary Union (EMU)
Norbert Horn	15
I. The Treaty of Maastricht and Decisions for the EMU	15
1. The Decisions of 1992 and 1998	15
2. A Single Currency in 1999	17
3. The Political Dimension of the EMU	18

II. The European System of Central Banks	21
1. The ECB and the ESCB	21
2. The Monetary Policy of the ESCB	23
III. The Fight for Monetary Stability	25
1. The Criteria of Convergence	25
2. The Provisions for Monetary Stability	26
3. Coordination and Monitoring of National Economic Policies	27
4. The Stability Pact of Amsterdam	28
IV. The EMU Monetary Area and the Euro Financial Market	28
1. The Enlarged Euro Monetary Area and its Single Financial Market	28
2. Supervision of Banks and Financial Services	29
V. The EMU and the Outside World	29
1. The Euro Exchange Rate Policy of the ECB	29
2. The New Exchange Rate Mechanism (ERM II)	30
VI. Problems of Transition to EMU	31
1. National Legislation on the Introduction of the Euro	31
2. The Principle of Continuity of Contracts	32
a) Lex Monetae and Continuity of Contracts	32
b) Extraterritorial Effects of Lex Monetae	33
c) Adaptation of Contracts?	34
VII. Concluding Remarks	35

Chapter Three:

Prudential Supervision of Banks in Germany and in the European Economic Area

Anja Gläser	37
I. Purpose of Prudential Supervision	37
II. Historic Background of Prudential Supervision in Germany	38
III. Position and Organisational Set-up of the FBSO	41
IV. Europe's Impact on German Supervision of Banking	42
V. Banking Groups in Germany	43
1. Private Commercial Banks	43
2. Foreign Banks	44
3. Public Sector Saving Banks and their Central Institutions	44
4. Credit Co-operatives	44
5. Building and Loan Associations	44
6. Mortgage Banks	45
7. Investment Companies/ Foreign Investment Funds	45
8. Special-Purpose Credit Institutions under Public Law	45
9. Providers of Financial Services	45
VI. Legal Framework for Prudential Supervision of Banks in Germany	45
VII. Applications of KWG	46

VIII. Material Provisions of KWG	48
1. License System	48
2. Standard Provisions	49
a) Own Funds	49
b) Principles Concerning the Capital and Liquidity of Banks.....	51
c) Supervision of Credit Business	52
d) Consolidation for Prudential Supervision Purposes.....	54
IX. Regular Supervision	55
1. Compulsory Notification	56
2. Information and Inspection Rights	56
3. Measures to Cope with Extraordinary Situations	57
X. Contributions, Expenses and Fees of the FBSO.....	58

Chapter Four:

The German System of Securities and Stock Exchanges

Stefanie Tetz	59
I. Introduction	59
II. Regulatory Environment	59
III. Supervision and Rules of Conduct	60
IV. The German Bond Market.....	61
V. The German Stock Market	62
VI. Stock Exchanges.....	62
1. Placement	63
2. Listing.....	64
3. Trading	64
4. Exchange Market Segments	65
5. Settlement and Clearing	66
VII. Regulatory Reform	66
VIII. Legal Implications of EURO	67

Chapter Five:

The Internal Market for Banking and Investment Services

Norbert Horn	69
I. Introduction: EMU and the Various Approaches to Create an Internal Financial Market.....	69
II. The Integrative Effects of Stage 3 of EMU	70
1. A Large Transaction Domain	70
2. A Euro Market for Bonds and Stocks.....	71
III. Freedom of Payment and Capital Movements in the EU	72
1. The Liberalization Process	72
2. Remaining Restrictions: Third Countries.....	73

IV. A Level Playing Field for Market Operators.....	75
1. Financial Services and the Freedom of Establishment and Services under the Treaty	75
2. Free Movement of Banking Services: the European Passport for Banks	76
3. Free Movement of Investment Services: the European Passport for Investment Service Providers	77
4. Further Steps to Harmonize the Laws on Banking and Securities Markets	79
V. Common Rules for Market Operations	80
VI. Remaining Divergencies in the National Laws on Banking and Investment Services	81
1. Limits to Harmonization.....	81
2. National Private Laws	82
VII. Market Integration with Open Boundaries	83
1. Open Boundaries	83
2. Enhanced Market Integration	83
 Part Two: Bank-Customer Relationship; Credits and Export Financing.....	 85
 Chapter Six: Bank-Customer Relationship in German Law and Practice Harald Herrmann	 87
I. Introduction	87
II. Banking Business and Legal Sources of Private Banking.....	88
1. Business Types and Customer Relationship.....	88
2. Contract Types of the BGB, General Banking Contract and the Law of Adhesion Contracts	89
3. Quasi Contractual and Tortious Liability	92
III. Banking Contract Law.....	93
1. Conclusion of Contract and Pre-Contractual Duties to explain and give information.....	93
2. Duties of the Bank	97
a) Obligation to Contract?	97
b) Due Care and Diligence	98
c) Computation of Time for Interest Calculation	101
d) Confidentiality and the Right to Give Information about the Customer	102
3. Duties of the Customer and Problems of Post-Contractual Securing.....	103
4. Variation and Termination of Contracts.....	105

5. The Applicable Law in Cross-Border Transactions	107
IV. Culpa in Contrahendo and Tortious Liability in Banking Law	109
1. Investors' Protection and Current Developments of the Suitability Doctrine.....	109
2. Special Problems of Discount Banking	110

Chapter Seven:

The Legal Framework for Prices and Charges in Banking Services

Johannes Köndgen	115
I. General Foundations.....	115
1. Why a Legal Framework for Prices?	115
2. A Classification of Bank Charges and their Respective Legal Bases	116
3. The Specific Difficulties of Pricing Banking Services: The Quest for Market Failure	117
a) Informational Asymmetries in Fiduciary Transactions.....	117
b) The Bank-Customer Relation as a Complex Long-Term Contract.....	118
c) Insufficient Transparency in Price Information.....	120
II. The Legal Framework for Bank Charges	121
1. Introductory Remarks	121
2. Price Terms in Standard Form Contracts and the Principles of Their Judicial Control	122
a) The Standard Form Contract Terms for Banking Business (1993).....	122
b) Principles of Judicial Control of Standard Form Price Terms	123
3. Direct Interference with Primary Price Terms.....	125
a) Control of Excessive Interest Rates: Usury Laws	125
b) No Compensation for the Performance of Statutory Duties	126
c) Judicial Control of Unilateral Price Determination or Adjustment.....	126
d) Judicial Control of Expenses Charged to the Customer.....	127
4. The Law Relating to Price Information	127
a) The Regulation on Price Information of 1985.....	127
b) Transparency of Price Terms under the Standard Form Contracts Act	128
5. Standard Form Provisions Granting the Authority of Unilateral Price Determination	128

Chapter Eight:

Consumer Credits and Other Private Credits in German Law and Practice

Martin Henssler	131
I. Introduction	131
II. The Protection of Consumers under the Consumer Credit Act	132
1. The Goals of the Act.....	132

2. The Scope of the Act	133
3. Consumer Information.....	133
4. Protection Against Inconsiderateness	134
5. Linked Transactions	135
6. Consumer Protection In Case of Default.....	135
7. Credit Brokerage Transactions	136
III. The Termination of Consumer Credits	136
IV. Other Personal Credits.....	137
1. Real Estate Loans	137
2. Credits for Financing Personal Risk Bearing Transactions (Capital Investment Transactions and Speculative Transactions)	139
V. Credit Securities for Personal Credits	140
1. Guarantees By Private Persons.....	140
2. Securing the Credit Through Transfer By Way of Security	141
VI. Summary.....	142

Chapter Nine:

Business Credits and Credit Securities in German Law and Practice

Klaus Christian Hübner	145
I. Introduction	145
II. Business Credits	147
1. Listed Bonds.....	147
2. Investment Credits.....	148
a) Private Placements.....	148
b) Special Institutions.....	149
c) Public and Private Banks.....	149
3. Project Finance	151
4. Leasing	152
5. Business Credits for Financing Current Assets	153
a) Different Forms	153
b) Commercial Papers	154
c) Supplier Credit	155
d) Export financing.....	155
e) Forfeiting.....	155
f) Factoring	156
6. Trade Tax.....	156
7. General Content of Credit Agreements	156
III. Credit Securities	160
1. Personal Securities.....	160
a) Guarantee.....	160
b) Liability as debtors Jointly and Severally	160

c) Warranty	161
d) Letter of Support for Credit Facilities	161
e) Single-Entity Relationships	161
2. Impersonal Securities	162
a) Real Estate Liens (Articles 1113 to 1203 BGB)	163
b) Liens on Movable Property and Rights	164
c) Assignment of Ownership	164
d) Assignment of Receivables	165

Chapter Ten:

Payment Terms: Letters of Credit

Günther Sattelhak	167
I. The UCP 500	167
1. History	167
2. Incorporation into Contracts	168
3. Established Custom or Usage	168
II. Letters of Credit	168
1. Definition of L/C	169
2. Types of L/Cs	169
a) Types of Credit according to Degree of Security	169
b) Types of Credit according to Payment Method	170
III. The Contractual Relationship Between the Various Parties in a Letter of Credit Transaction	172
1. Contract of Sale and the L/C Clause in the Contract of Sale	172
a) Time for Credit to be Opened	173
b) Revocable and Irrevocable Credits	173
c) Confirmation	173
d) Seller's Remedies	173
e) Incomplete Credit Terms in the L/C Clause	173
2. The Contract between the Applicant and the Issuing Bank	174
3. The Contract between the Issuing Bank and the Advising Bank	174
4. The Contract between the Issuing Bank and the Beneficiary	174
5. The Contract between the Issuing Bank and the Confirming Bank	175
6. The Contract between the Issuing Bank and the Negotiating Bank	176
IV. Applicable Law	176
1. Choice of Law: Construction	176
2. Applicable Law of Contract of Sale	176
3. Applicable Law of Contract between Applicant and Issuing Bank	177
4. Applicable Law of Contract between Beneficiary and Issuing Bank	177
5. Applicable Law of Relationships between Banks Involved in a Credit	177
V. Autonomy of the Credit	177

1. Article 3 UCP: The Autonomy Principle	177
2. Article 4 UCP: Dealing in Documents	178
3. The Fraud Exception	178
4. Illegality	179
VI. Duties and Responsibilities of Banks Involved in a Credit	179
1. The Issuing Bank	179
a) Duties to Applicant	179
b) Duties to Beneficiary	179
c) Duties to Confirming /Negotiating Bank	180
d) Acceptance / Rejection of Documents	180
2. The Advising Bank	180
a) No Payment Liability	180
b) Agency	181
c) Negligence	181
3. The Confirming Bank	181
a) Separate Undertaking	182
b) Duties to Beneficiary	182
c) Duties to Issuing Bank	182
VII. Presentation of Documents	182
1. Presentation Period	182
2. Duty to Examine Documents	183
3. Discrepancies in Documents	183
4. Problems on Discrepancies	185
5. Payment under Reserve / Documentary Collection	185
VIII. Special Forms of Credits	186
1. Stand-By L/Cs	186
2. Back-to-Back L/Cs	186
3. Transferable L/Cs	187

Chapter Eleven:

The U.N. Convention on Independent Guarantees and the Lex Mercatoria

Norbert Horn	189
I. Introduction: A New Step Towards a Uniform Legal Regime for Bank Guarantees	189
II. The Bank Guarantee as an Instrument to Secure International Commercial Transactions	191
1. Documentary Letters of Credit (L/Cs) and Bank Guarantees	191
2. The Independent Guarantee as a Type of Obligation, and Stand- by L/Cs	192
3. The Risk Covered by the Guarantee or Stand-By L/C	193
4. Conflicting Interests as to the Protection Against Unfair Calling	194

III. The Efforts to Formulate Uniform Rules for International Guarantees	195
1. Uniform Rules for Contract Guarantees of the ICC 1978	195
2. Uniform Rules for Demand Guarantees, 1991	195
3. Uniform Customs and Practices for Documentary Credits 1993	196
IV. The New U.N. Convention on Independent Guarantees	197
1. The Definition of the Independent Guarantee	197
2. Conditional Guarantees?.....	198
3. Application of the Convention and of National Laws; Interpretation	199
V. Exceptions Under the Convention and the Problem of Unfair Calling	199
1. Exceptions in General.....	199
2. The Case of Unfair Calling in the U.N. Convention	200
VI. Interim Court Measures	201
VII. Concluding Remarks	202
 Part Three: Annex.....	 205
Banking Act.....	207
Securities Act.....	301
General Business Conditions.....	339
Index.....	355