

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
-----------------------	-----

Introduction:

Excursions into Women's Travel Writing Béatrice Bijon & Gérard Gâcon.....	1
---	---

Part I – North America

Supporters or Subversives? Mixed Messages from Women Travellers in the Theatre of War Jane Robinson	11
Traveling and the Discourse of Economy in Nancy Prince's Travel Narrative Carmen Birkle	17
"Travellers Are Privileged to Do the Most Improper Things with Perfect Propriety." Isabella Bird's A Lady's Life in the Rocky Mountains Hélène Cheynet	35
Klee Wyck: A Canadian Exploration amidst a Totem Pole Forest Elisabeth Bouzonviller	51

Part II – Asia and Oceania

Isabella Bird's in Japan: Unbeaten Tracks in Travel Literature Floriane Reviron	67
An Emancipated View of the Other: Fanny Parks in India Gérard Gâcon	81
"There is a Happy Land, Far, Far Away": Anna Leonowens or the (Re)Tracing of Harem Life Hubert Malfray	97

A Woman Time-Traveller: Time in Daisy Bates'

The Passing of the Aborigines

Arnaud Moussart..... 109

Part III – Middle East*Time, Space, and Perception in Freya Stark's Baghdad Sketches*

Jessica Langer 123

Between Distance and Empathy:The Representation of the Desert in Lady Anne Blunt'sPilgrimage to Nejd (1878-79)

Carole Bourne-Taylor 133

Amelia Edwards's Nile Journey

Joan Rees..... 143

Part IV – Africa*Kingsley's Multiple Voices in Travels in West Africa*

Valerie Kennedy 153

The Mangrove Deciphered: Mary Kingsley and West Africa

Gérard Gâcon 167

Vivienne de Watteville's Speaking to the Earth:"Living Outside Time and Space" in Africa

Béatrice Bijon 177

Notes on Contributors 197