

Contents

Spatial Concepts, Approaches and Methods

for Digital Humanities – An Introduction to the Book

Finn Dammann & Dominik Kremer7

SPATIAL CONCEPTS, APPROACHES AND PERSPECTIVES

Digital Spatial Humanities – Some Methodological Remarks and Two Historical Examples

Günther Görz15

The Digital Humanities and Geography's Spatial Thought

Boris Michel 37

Language(s), Discourse(s), Space(s) – and their Transformations in the Digital Age

Research Approaches from Cultural and Social Geography

Georg Glasze 45

Petrichor and Positionality: Occasion for a Situated Spatial Epidemiology in the Digital Humanities

Blake Byron Walker 63

EVOLVING METHODS AND CRITICAL REFLECTIONS

Place and Space in Literature

Named Entity Recognition as a Possibility for Spatial Modelling in Computational Literary Studies

Mareike Schumacher, Marie Flüh & Julia Nantke 83

The Knowledge Graph as a Data Sculpture: Visualising Arts and Humanities Data with Maps, Graphs, and Sets over Time
Florian Windhager, Saminu Salisu, Johannes Liem & Eva Mayr 113

Placing Wellbeing: Distant Reading Approaches for Exploratory Placial Data Analysis
Dominik Kremer, Blake Byron Walker..... 135

Operationalising Territories in 16th-Century Europe: A Critical Reflection on Spatial Concepts
Ramona Roller 151

Authors195