

OVER
#50,000
COPIES
SOLD

how to manage

The definitive guide to effective management

Jo Owen

International bestselling author

Praise for previous editions of How to Manage

‘This could easily be the best book on management so far... an entertaining and instructive guide...’

Personnel Today

‘All the science tools and techniques that any manager will need to be successful.’

Graeme Duncan, Chief Executive, Right to Succeed

‘Jo Owen gets right to the heart of what great managers do and gives you the skills to practise so that you can become great’

James Toop, CEO, Bite Back 2030

How to Manage

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title

Title Page

Copyright Page

Contents

About the author

About the sixth edition

Publishers acknowledgement

1. Introduction and summary: real managers for the real world

Rational management

Emotional management

Political management

Management quotient

2. Rational management skills: dealing with problems, tasks and money

Starting at the end: focus on outcomes

Achieving results: performance and perceptions

Making decisions: acquiring intuition fast

Table of Contents

Solving problems: prisons and frameworks and tools

Strategic thinking: floors, romantics and the classics

Financial skills

Setting budgets: the politics of performance

Managing budgets: the annual dance routine

Managing costs: minimising pain

Surviving spreadsheets: assumptions, not maths

Using time effectively: activity versus achievement

3. Emotional management skills: dealing with people

Motivating people: creating willing followers

Building the high-performance team: the RAMP model

Managing professionals: managing people who do not want to be managed

Managing people you cannot see: building remote and hybrid teams

Persuading people: how to sell anything

Coaching: no more training

Delegating: doing better by doing less

Handling conflict: from FEAR to EAR

Minding your mind: the management mindset

Learning the right behaviours: what your team really wants

4. Political management skills: acquiring power

Table of Contents

to make things happen

The ten laws of power: achieving PQ

Taking control: the power of ideas

Managing change: people, not projects

Managing the change process

People and change: through the valley of death

Making things happen: managing projects

The art of unreasonable management: ruthlessness

Managing your boss: and difficult people

Managing your career: career is a noun and a verb

Playing the game: manage the politics

Achieving and using influence: become the trusted manager

5. Management quotient skills: managing your journey

Managing your career journey: your 45-year map

Stepping up: first-time and accidental managers

Into the matrix: leading from the middle

Reaching the summit: top-level management

Acquiring MQ: how to learn success

Employing MQ: uses and abuses

Decoding your success formula: your journey

Index

Back Cover

Table of Contents