

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface: An Invitation to Entertain Fear	vii
M.J. Braun, Danika M. Brown, and Catherine Chaput
Introduction: Fear, Affective Energy, and the Political Economy of Global Capitalism.....	1
Catherine Chaput

Part One

Democratizing Fear: Political Rhetoric and the War on Terror

1. Electing Empire: Systemic Chaos and the Fear of Falling.....	29
M.J. Braun
2. Blow Back the Enemy T/here: Errors, Terrors, and the Rhetorical Agenda of WMDs	53
Kevin Douglas Kuswa
3. We Have Nothing to Fear but....: A Rhetorical Analysis of Fear in Post-9/11 Sermons.....	67
Mark A. Gring

Part Two

Legitimizing Fear: Institutional Rhetoric and the Policing of Boundaries

4. Fear of Fire and Hope for Jobs: The Rhetoric of Sustainable Development in the Political Ecology of Wildfire.....	99
Paul Burkhardt
5. Upwardly Mobile by Degrees: Higher Education and the Rhetorics of Fear.....	115
Danika M. Brown
6. Boundaries of Citizenship: Undocumented Workers and Temporary Work Policies in the United States.....	135
Amy J. Wan

7.	The Architecture of Fear: Common Sense and The U.S.-Mexico Border Wall	155
	Zoe Hammer
 Part Three
Consuming Fear: Cultural Rhetoric and the Process of Dis/Identification
8.	Art, Apprehension, and the Gated Community: Thomas Kinkade's "Village"	183
	Cynthia Duquette Smith
9.	The Mall of America: Consumption in the Social Wilderness.....	203
	Cristina Hanganu-Bresch
10.	"Is THAT what they are so afraid of?": The Popular Media and Pro-Anorexia Websites	223
	Kat McLellan
11.	Transnational Remembering: Navigating Fear and Racism, Shame and Nostalgia.....	245
	Angela Crow
 Conclusion: Contextualizing Fear in History, Scholarship, and the Economy of Affect
	Michael William Pfau	259
 Contributors..... 279
 Index 283		