

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Translator's note	III
List of abbreviations	XI

I. Introduction

A. Subjects and Objects of Law	1
1. Legal status	1
2. Legal capacity	4
B. The nature of property rights	8
C. Types of property rights	9
Revision	11

II. Possession

A. Property rights and possession	12
B. Legal significance of possession	13
C. Elements of possession	13
D. Proprietary and natural possession	14
E. The distinction between IUSTA POSSESSIO (unflawed possession) and POSSESSIO EX IUSTA CAUSA (civil/lawful possession)	16
F. Excursus: FURTUM	20
Revision	24

III. The acquisition of possession

A. General introduction	25
B. Acquisition of possession and legal capacity	26
C. Original and derivative modes of acquiring possession	27
D. ANIMUS	27
E. Typical cases concerning ANIMUS	29
F. CORPUS	31
G. Types of cases concerning CORPUS	32
Revision	37
Exercises	38
H. Acquiring possession SOLO ANIMO	42
1. BREVI MANU	42
2. CONSTITUTUM POSSESSORIUM	42

J. Acquisition of possession by persons ALIENI IURIS	45
K. Acquisition of possession by agents SUI IURIS	48
Revision	50
Exercises	51
IV. Retaining possession, losing possession
A. General introduction	55
B. Retaining and losing possession of movables	57
C. The special case of the SERVUS FUGITIVUS	59
D. Retaining and losing possession of immovable property without the aid of detentors or possessor's agents	61
E. Retaining and losing possession of immovable property entrusted to detentors or possessor's agents	63
Revision	64
Exercises	65
V. Ownership
A. Definition	68
B. Ownership and possession	68
C. Ownership and limited property rights	69
D. Powers of the owner	70
E. Limits of the owner's right	71
F. Joint ownership	72
1. CONSORTIUM	73
2. CONDOMINIUM	74
Revision	76
VI. Acquiring ownership – an overview	77
A. Modes of acquisition	77
B. Acquiring ownership by conveyance	77
C. Acquiring ownership by usucaption (USUCAPIO)	78
D. “Natural” modes of acquiring ownership	79
1. OCCUPATIO (appropriation)	79
2. Acquisition of fruits	79
3. ACCESSIO (connection)	80
4. CONFUSIO, COMMIXTIO (blending, mixing)	80
5. SPECIFICATIO (specification, transformation)	80
Revision	81

VII. Transfer of ownership

A. Transferring ownership by means of MANCIPATIO and IN IURE CESSIO	82
1. MANCIPATIO	82
2. IN IURE CESSIO	84
B. Transferring ownership by TRADITIO	84
C. Derivative modes of acquiring ownership in modern civil law codifications	89
Revision	94
Exercises	96

VIII. Acquiring ownership by usucaption – USUCAPIO

A. General overview	99
B. Usucaption in cases of deficiency in form	100
C. Usucaption because of legal deficiencies relating to the transferor ...	101
1. Typology of cases	101
2. Requirements	102
2.1. RES HABILIS	102
2.2. TITULUS (CAUSA)	103
2.3. BONA FIDES	104
2.4. POSSESSIO	107
2.5. TEMPUS	108
D. Excursus: LEX ATINIA	108
E. Roman USUCAPIO and modern cases of bona fide acquisition	110
1. Essential requirements for bona fide acquisition	111
1.1 Movable property	111
1.2 Good faith	111
1.3 IUSTA POSSESSIO (unflawed possession) and POSSESSIO EX IUSTA CAUSA (civil possession)	112
1.4 Consideration/Counter performance	112
1.5 Commercial dealings	113
1.6 Acquisition from someone to whom the owner has entrusted the goods	113
1.7 Bona fide acquisition of stolen, missing, or lost property	114
2. Bona fide acquisition in selected legal systems	115
2.1 Austria	115
2.2 Germany	116
2.3 Switzerland	117

2.4 France	119
2.5 Italy	119
3. The profile of usucaption under Austrian law	120
3.1 Proper (short) usucaption	121
3.2 Improper (long) usucaption	121
Revision	122
Exercises	123

IX. “Natural” modes of acquiring ownership

A. Appropriation/Occupancy – OCCUPATIO	126
B. Acquiring fruits	128
C. Accession – ACCESSIO	132
1. General introduction	132
2. Accession of movables	135
3. Accession of movables to land	137
4. Exception: building a house	138
D. Blending – CONFUSIO , mixing – COMMIXTIO	141
1. General introduction	141
2. Exception: mixing third-party money with one’s own	142
E. Transformation – SPECIFICATIO	143
Revision	147
Exercises	148

X. Protection of property in Roman civil procedure

A. Property claims in general	152
B. The two stages of Roman Civil procedure	152
1. Proceedings IN IURE	153
2. Proceedings APUD IUDICEM	155
C. Protecting the property rights of owners and usucapients	156
D. The procedural formula of the REI VINDICATIO	156
E. The defendant’s pleas – EXCEPTIONES	158
1. EXCEPTIO DOLI	159
2. EXCEPTIO REI VENDITAE ET TRADITAE	160
F. REI VINDICATIO : capacity to be sued	160
G. Extent of the defendant’s obligation to make restitution	163
1. Fruits	163
2. Destruction of the object in dispute	164
3. Expenses refunded to the BONAE FIDEI POSSESSOR	166
Revision	167

H. ACTIO PUBLICIANA	168
J. Defenses (EXCEPTIONES) and counter-pleas (REPLICATIONES) ..	169
1. EXCEPTIO IUSTI DOMINII	170
2. REPLICATIO REI VENDITAE ET TRADITAE	170
K. ACTIO NEGATORIA	173
Revision	174
Exercises	175

XI. Servitudes, usufruct, and emphyteusis

A. Defining servitudes	178
B. Praedial (landed) servitudes	178
C. Personal servitudes	181
1. Usufruct – USUSFRUCTUS	181
2. Other personal servitudes	182
D. Legal protection of the beneficiary of a servitude	183
E. USUCAPIO LIBERTATIS	183
F. Legal servitudes	184
G. Hereditary (emphyteutic) lease	184
H. Hereditary building right	185
Revision	186
Exercises	187

XII. Pledge – PIGNUS

A. The problem	189
B. General remarks on pledge as a limited property right	189
1. Pledge as security	190
2. Types of pledge	190
3. Other types of security in Roman law	191
C. The dual aspects of the pledge – rights in rem and in personam	192
D. Pledge as a right in rem	192
1. Requirements	192
2. Legal remedies	194
E. The contract of pledge as a real contract	195
F. Alienation of the pledged property	196
1. Alienation of the pledged property with the secured creditor's consent	196
2. Alienation of the pledged property without the secured creditor's consent	197
3. Enforcing the pledge	198

G. Pledging third-party property – RES ALIENA PIGNORI DATA	199
H. Termination of the right of pledge prior to enforcement	201
J. Blanket liens and pledging aggregates of things	204
Revision	205
K. Rights of pledge without (explicit) pledge agreements	206
1. Tacit liens: PIGNUS TACITUM	206
2. Residential lease	207
3.Usufructuary lease of agricultural land	208
4. “Statutory” liens	209
L. Multiple liens	209
1. The problem	209
2. Priority of rights of pledge	210
3. Legal remedies	212
4. Exceptions from the principle of priority	214
Revision	215
Exercises	216

XIII. A few hints on solving cases

A. Solving cases and writing an exegesis	221
B. Didactic aim of solving cases	221
C. Structure of a case	221
D. Formulating your solution	224
E. Exercises	225
Exercise 1 (acquiring possession)	225
Exercise 2 (TRADITIO , usucaption, transformation)	227
Exercise 3 (rights of pledge)	233

XIV. Set cases from exams in property law 235

XV. A few hints on writing an exegesis

A. Introduction	259
B. Definition and function of exegesis	260
C. Outline of an exegesis	260
D. What should go into your interpretation?	262
E. Model exegesis of D 20.1.29.2 (Case 170)	264

Index of sources	271
----------------------------	-----

Index	277
-----------------	-----