

Contents

Acknowledgements 7

Women and migration: anthropological perspectives 9

Jacqueline Knörr & Barbara Meier

Part I

Transformations of gender relations and female identities in the context of migration

Mafa women and migration 21

José van Santen & Juliette Schaafsma

Female identities in a “globalized village”:
a case study of South Lebanese migration to West Africa 63

Anja Peleikis

Female secret societies and their impact on ethnic and trans-ethnic identities among migrant women in Freetown, Sierra Leone 80

Jacqueline Knörr

Afro-Caribbean carnival as ethnic empowerment and migrant organization:
image building and women’s changing role in contemporary carnival 99

Patricia Tamara Alleyne-Dettmers

Religious concepts in the process of migration:
Puerto Rican female spiritists in the United States 119

Bettina E. Schmidt

Part II

Female networks and decision-making strategies in migrant settings

Ethnic networks in women's migration: a comparative study of Jewish and Italian women in New York, 1870-1924 135

Kathie Friedman Kasaba

Men's migrant labor and its effects on gender relations in rural Zimbabwe 151

Rita Schäfer

"One day, we will return home":

Turkana women migration and remigration 164

Ulrike Schultz

Migrant women's associations in Ghana:

the case of the female chief and female chain migration 181

Barbara Meier

"Pioneers in the Lake": female migrants in the Lake Chad region of northeastern Nigeria 197

Editha Platte

African-Swiss women's social networks 212

Claudia Roth & Chinwe Ifejika Speranza

Part III

Self-presentation in female migrants' biographies and narratives

First generation Italian female migrants in Germany 235

Ingeborg Philipper

Strategic narratives: Latin American women

as social actors of their biographies 249

Sandra Gruner-Domic

Contributors 267