

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	5
INTRODUCTION	8
1. Aims and Scope of the Study	8
2. Questions Reconsidered and Methodical Contemplation	13
3. Previous Studies	20
4. Materials of the Study	24
5. The Plains Indians and the Plains Culture Area Concept	34
 METHODICAL CONSIDERATIONS	 42
6. The Study of the Plains Indian Shields: Some Observations Concerning Previous Studies and Future Tasks	42
7. Mató-Tópe's Knife and Crazy Horse's Shield: Use of Ethnographic Objects as Cultural Documents	50
8. The Family of the Plains Indian Religions	65
 BEAR SHIELDS REVIEWED	 78
9. A Forgotten Comanche Shield? Highlight of My Research Work	78
10. Bear Power Motifs on Plains Indian Shields	81
 REINTERPRETATIONS	 104
11. Bear Ceremonialism and Its Environmental Integration among the Subarctic and Plains Indians	104
12. Individualism and Collectivism in the Plains Indians' Visions and Visionary Art	115
 CONCLUSIONS	 130
 BIBLIOGRAPHY	 138
Sources	138
Literature	145