

OJO OLUGBENGA

One Man, One Vision

*Discovering and Fulfilling Your God-Ordained Purpose in a Distracted
World*

© 2025 OJO OLUGBENGA

Cover graphic by: CANVA

Printing and distribution on behalf of the author:

tradition GmbH, Heinz-Beusen-Stieg 5, 22926 Ahrensburg, Germany.

This work, including its parts, is protected by copyright.

The author is responsible for the content. Any use without his consent is prohibited.

*Publication and distribution are carried out on behalf of the author, who can be reached at: No. 1, Oke-Ila Street, Opp.
COREM Church, Ado Ekiti, Nigeria*

*Contact address according to the EU Product Safety Regulation:
ojoolugbenga679@gmail.com*

OJO OLUGBENGA asserts the moral right to be identified as the author of this work. This is a work of fiction and the names and places are not real but entirely coincidental.

First edition

*This book was professionally typeset on Reedsy.
Find out more at reedsy.com*

Contents

Foreword	v
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	1
Chapter 1	4
Chapter 2	9
Chapter 3	14
Chapter 4	20
Chapter 5	27
Chapter 6	33
Chapter 7	39
Chapter 8	46
Chapter 9	52
Chapter 10	58
Chapter 11	64
Chapter 12	70
Chapter 13	76
Chapter 14	82
Chapter 15	90
Chapter 16	97
Chapter 17	103
Chapter 18	109
Chapter 19	116
Chapter 20	122
Chapter 21	130

Foreword

Vision is the compass of destiny. Without it, even the most gifted, anointed, or passionate individual can wander in circles, chasing shadows rather than substance. It is vision—God’s revealed purpose—that gives direction to our lives, strength to our steps, and meaning to our seasons of waiting and warfare. One Man, One Vision is not just a title. It is a divine assignment that was birthed through tears, trials, triumphs, and times of silence. This book is the product of my personal walk with God—the valleys I have passed through, the mountains I have climbed, and the moments when the voice of the Lord came clearly in the midst of confusion. It was written not from a place of theory, but from a place of encounter.

I wrote this book for every man and woman who knows deep down that they were created for more. For those who sense the pull of destiny but are unsure where it’s leading. For the one who has heard the call of God but finds themselves in the wilderness of delay, doubt, or discouragement. I write to the emerging leader who has zeal but lacks clarity. To the servant of God who is burning out because the weight of the vision seems too heavy. And to the visionary who is tempted to settle, give up, or go silent because the opposition has become too loud.

Inside these pages are spiritual truths that God taught me—truths that cost me comfort, but birthed conviction. I share the principles that shaped my calling, the revelations that realigned my thinking, and the divine dealings that deepened my trust in the One who called me. These lessons are not unique to me; they are transferable, applicable, and transformational to anyone who desires to walk in their God-given purpose.

You will read about the power of vision, the pain of preparation, the necessity of divine direction, and the grace that carries us through wilderness seasons. You will learn about the enemies of destiny, the tools for breakthrough, and the signs that a new season is upon you. This is not just a book—it is a prophetic journey, one that I believe will align your heart with heaven's agenda.

We are living in a generation where many are pursuing success without purpose, building platforms without blueprints, and walking without watching. But you, dear reader, were not created for confusion. You were designed by God for a divine mandate. There is something unique that only you can accomplish. There is a territory only you are graced to take. But to walk in it, you must first see it. And then, like Joseph, Moses, David, and Paul—you must pursue it with everything inside of you.

My prayer is that as you read this book, God will speak directly to your heart. That every chapter will awaken a new level of clarity, boldness, and spiritual hunger in you. May the Lord give you eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to obey. May He silence every opposing voice and strengthen your inner man. May this book become a tool in your hands, a torch in your spirit, and a turning point in your destiny journey.

Let the fire of vision be rekindled. Let destiny arise. And let the one-man vision become a generational impact.

– Ojo Olugbenga

Acknowledgments

I am deeply grateful to the Almighty God, the Giver of vision, the Sustainer of purpose, and the Author and Finisher of our faith. Without His grace and divine leading, this book would not have been possible.

My sincere appreciation goes to everyone who has played a significant role in my journey of purpose. To my spiritual mentors and fathers in the faith—thank you for your guidance, prayers, and impartation. Your obedience to God has inspired me to obey my own divine call.

I acknowledge the unwavering support of my family and loved ones. Your encouragement, patience, and belief in the vision God gave me have strengthened my resolve.

To every reader and dreamer holding this book—you are the reason this vision was birthed. May the words within these pages ignite fresh fire, direction, and boldness in your walk with God.

—Ojo Olugbenga

Introduction

There comes a time in every believer's life when a holy unrest begins to stir—an inner knowing that they were born for more than survival. That stirring is vision. Not just ambition or imagination, but divine direction—a picture of God's purpose uniquely assigned to your life.

One Man, One Vision is not just a title; it is a divine blueprint. It speaks to the reality that God often begins His greatest movements through one surrendered life. Whether it was Noah building an ark, Moses confronting Pharaoh, Esther risking her crown, or Paul launching into unknown territories—history is marked by men and women who aligned their lives with God's vision and changed the world.

This book was born out of personal encounters, wilderness seasons, divine instructions, and years of pressing through confusion, delay, opposition, and discovery. Like many, I did not always understand the weight of the calling or the process it would demand. But over time, God began to unveil the layers of the vision He had planted within me—one revelation at a time.

I wrote this book for the visionary who feels unseen, the minister in training, the dreamer in doubt, and the believer wondering why things feel delayed. If you've ever asked:

One Man, One Vision

- "What is God really calling me to do?"
- "Why is this process so painful?"
- "How can I move forward when I feel unqualified or alone?"

—then this book is for you.

Inside these pages, you will find:

- Biblical truth about discovering and walking in your God-given vision
- Spiritual wisdom on overcoming hindrances, delay, fear, and distraction
- Prophetic encouragement for those in wilderness seasons
- Practical insight on how vision relates to your marriage, environment, education, and spiritual leadership
- Divine reminders that your vision is not just about you—it is about souls, legacy, and kingdom purpose

Each chapter is written to stir your spirit, challenge your thinking, and awaken your calling. You were not created for a life of confusion and compromise. You were created for clarity, courage, and kingdom impact.

I invite you to read this book not just with your eyes, but with your spirit. Let God speak. Let Him convict. Let Him awaken the sleeping giant within you.

This is your season to rise. This is your time to build.

This is your moment to believe again.

You are one man. One woman. One voice. One vision.

Introduction

And that is more than enough for God to move.

Welcome to the journey.

— Ojo Olugbenga

Chapter 1

ONE MAN, ONE VISION

“Then I said, ‘Here am I! Send me.’” – Isaiah 6:8 (NKJV)

You Are God’s Strategy

Throughout Scripture and in every generation, God has always used a single surrendered individual to birth mighty movements. When God intends to change a nation, transform a family, deliver a people, or ignite revival—He often begins with one person. Not a crowd. Not a committee. Just one man or woman who dares to believe, obey, and follow through.

One man. One vision.

That is how it begins. It was one man—Noah—who built an ark that preserved the human race (Genesis 6:9-

Chapter 1

22). One man—Abraham—who left everything to follow a promise, becoming the father of nations (Genesis 12:1-3). One man—Joseph—who endured betrayal and prison to preserve Israel during famine (Genesis 50:20). One man—Moses—who stood before Pharaoh and said, “Let my people go.” And ultimately, it was One Man—Jesus Christ—who bore the sins of the world and opened the door of salvation to all mankind. You see, God’s pattern has never changed. Heaven searches for a willing vessel on earth—someone who will carry vision, not for personal fame, but for divine fulfillment. One man aligned with God’s vision can shift the course of history.

Vision Is Not a Suggestion – It Is a Calling

Vision is not the same as ambition. Ambition originates from self. Vision originates from God. Ambition is fueled by competition. Vision is ignited by divine instruction. Ambition seeks to impress people. Vision seeks to please God. When God gives a vision, it’s not an optional assignment. It is a divine calling, a sacred trust, and a heavenly responsibility. This is why the Bible says:

“Write the vision and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it.” – Habakkuk 2:2

Vision is God’s revealed purpose for your life. It is the picture of your destiny from God’s perspective. It is not always about a platform, a pulpit, or a title. Sometimes, vision is about raising godly children, starting a Christian business, planting a ministry, or feeding the poor. Whatever it is—it is specific, Spirit-inspired, and eternally significant.

One Man, One Vision

You Are Not Too Small for God's Vision

One of the biggest lies the enemy uses to paralyze visionaries is: “You’re not qualified.” He whispers, “You’re too young. Too uneducated. Too ordinary. Too broken. Too poor.”

But here’s the truth: God does not call the qualified—He qualifies the called.

“But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise...” – 1 Corinthians 1:2/

- Moses was a stammerer.
- David was a forgotten shepherd boy.
- Gideon was the least in his family.
- Jeremiah said, “I cannot speak, for I am a youth.”

And yet, each of them fulfilled their vision—not by strength, but by surrender. What God is looking for is not perfection, but availability.

Have you made yourself available?

The Cost of Carrying a Vision

Carrying divine vision is not glamorous. It is costly. It will require:

- Separation from the crowd
- Rejection by those who don’t understand
- Wrestling with doubt, delay, and discouragement
- Discipline in prayer, fasting, and study

Chapter 1

- Courage to keep going when no one is clapping

Vision will isolate you before it elevates you. But every tear, every trial, and every test is preparing you to steward what God has shown you.

Jesus said:

“For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost...?” – Luke 14:28

If you are serious about fulfilling God’s vision for your life, be prepared to count the cost. But be assured—the reward far outweighs the sacrifice.

The Fire of Vision Will Change You

When God places a true vision inside of you, it becomes like fire shut up in your bones. You will not be able to ignore it, suppress it, or escape it. Like the prophet Jeremiah, you’ll cry out:

“But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I was weary of holding it back, and I could not.” – Jeremiah 20:9

That vision will wake you up in the night. It will stir you in prayer. It will burden your heart until you say, “Lord, here I am. Send me.”

Vision transforms the way you see life, time, people, money, relationships, and pain. It gives purpose to every experience and redemption to every past mistake.

One Man, One Vision

- You are God's strategy. Don't wait for a crowd. Heaven is looking for one obedient man.
- Vision is not ambition—it is a divine assignment.
- You are not disqualified by your weakness. In fact, your weakness may be the very thing that qualifies you.
- There is a cost to vision, but it is worth it.
- Real vision from God will change you before it changes others.

Reflection & Prayer

- Have you asked God to reveal His vision for your life?
- Are you available, even if you feel unqualified?
- Are you willing to pay the price that vision requires?

Prayer:

Father, open my eyes to see what You see. Awaken the vision You've placed within me. Help me surrender completely to Your calling, no matter the cost. Make me a vessel of purpose, a carrier of divine vision, and a faithful steward of what You've entrusted to me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Chapter 2

UNDERSTANDING THE POWER OF VISION

“Where there is no vision, the people perish...” –
Proverbs 29:18 (KJV)

What Is Vision, Really?

Vision is more than just a dream. It is more than setting goals or having ambitions. In the kingdom of God, vision is divine insight into your future that is revealed by the Holy Spirit. It is God’s blueprint for your life, your assignment, and your impact.

Vision is the spiritual picture of what God wants to do through you, in you, and sometimes even in spite of you. It is the reason you were born, the fuel that sustains your spiritual journey, and the lens through which you interpret both success and suffering.

One Man, One Vision

When a man receives a vision from God, he ceases to live by chance. His life becomes guided by revelation, not reaction.

Vision Brings Order and Direction

Just as headlights help a driver navigate a dark road, vision gives light to your path. Without vision, you will find yourself busy but not effective, active but not productive, moving but not progressing.

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” – Psalms 119:105

Vision clarifies:

- Where you are going
- What you should pursue
- What to say “yes” or “no” to
- Who you should walk with
- How you spend your time, energy, and resources

Many believers suffer from spiritual misalignment simply because they lack clarity of vision. But when you understand your vision, your decisions begin to align with your divine destiny.

The Power to End Confusion and Distraction

One of Satan’s greatest weapons is distraction—not necessarily through sin, but through busyness and misplaced priorities.

When you lack vision:

Chapter 2

- You say “yes” to everything, and end up effective at nothing.
- You start many things, but complete few.
- You jump from assignment to assignment, always wondering why you feel empty and unfulfilled.

But when vision comes, focus returns. You begin to live with intentionality. You stop measuring yourself by others’ journeys and instead run your own race with clarity.

Vision Produces Passion and Motivation

Vision carries fuel. It has the ability to wake you up in the morning and keep you up in the night—not from anxiety, but from holy urgency. A person with vision is hard to stop. They may be delayed, but not defeated. They may fall, but they get up with greater fire.

Vision keeps you moving when motivation dies. It is purpose that carries you through pressure.

Jesus endured the cross because of vision:

“Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross...” – Hebrews 12:2

What joy was set before Him? The vision of your salvation. The picture of you being redeemed, restored, and made whole. That’s the power of vision—it helps you endure present pain because you can see future glory.

One Man, One Vision

Vision Inspires Sacrifice

Without vision, sacrifice seems like suffering. With vision, sacrifice becomes investment. A person of vision doesn't waste their time, because they understand their purpose. They don't waste their energy on things that don't matter. They guard their heart, protect their peace, and stay the course.

Vision makes you say:

- “I can't waste this season.”
- “I must protect what God has shown me.”
- “This pain is preparation, not punishment.”

That's why visionaries are misunderstood—they are driven by something others can't see.

Vision Attracts Provision

Where God gives vision, He also sends provision. Vision opens doors, aligns divine connections, and brings supernatural favor. If you are truly walking in God's vision for your life, you will see God send people, resources, and strength at just the right time.

But here's the key: God funds His vision, not your ambition. If what you're doing is divinely assigned, you will not need to manipulate people or strive in the flesh.

“And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” – Philippians 4:19

When your vision is born of God, heaven backs you up.