

Contents

I     Anatomy of the Breast . . . . . 1

II     Method for Systematic Viewing of Mammograms . . . 5

III    Approach to Viewing Mammographic Images and Interpreting the Findings . . . . . 15

IV     Circular/Oval Lesions . . . . . 17
      Signs of Primary Importance in Diagnosing
      Circular/Oval Lesions . . . . . 18
      Signs of Secondary Importance in Diagnosing
      Circular/Oval Lesions . . . . . 19
      Strategy . . . . . 20
      Practice in Analyzing Circular/Oval Tumors (Cases 1–56) 21

V     Stellate/Spiculated Lesions and Architectural Distortion . . . . . 101
      Practice in Analyzing Stellate/Spiculated Lesions and Architectural Distortion on the Mammogram
      (Cases 58–85) . . . . . 106

VI     Calcifications on the Mammogram . . . . . 169
      Malignant-Type Calcifications within Ducts and/or in Terminal Ductal Lobular Units . . . . . 170
      Practice in Calcification Analysis (Cases 86–109) . . . . 173
      Benign-type Calcifications within Ducts or Lobules . . . . 239
      Miscellaneous Calcifications . . . . . 242
      Practice in Calcification Analysis (Cases 112–152) . . . . 243

VII    Thickened Skin Syndrome of the Breast . . . . . 289
      Physical Examination . . . . . 291
      Mammographic Appearance . . . . . 291

VIII   Overall Strategy . . . . . 295

References . . . . . 297

Further Reading . . . . . 298

Index . . . . . 299