

Table of Contents

Stieneker, Frank	Foreword		8
Mahler, Hanns-Christian Borchard, Gerrit Luessen, Henrik L.	Preface		9
Crommelin, Daan	Introduction: The Future of Parental Delivery of Therapeutic Proteins: Quo vadis?		11

Section I

Protein Characterization and Implications for Protein Formulation Research

Chapter 1	Introduction to Protein Chemistry Kirchhoff, Carol		18
Chapter 2	Characterization of Proteins and Related Analytical Techniques Garidel, Patrick; Kliche, Werner; Pisch-Heberle, Sandra; Thierolf, Michael		44
Chapter 3	Development and Application of Potency Assays for Protein Pharmaceuticals Brauchle, Maria; Hofmann, Matthias; Millward, Thomas A.		90
Chapter 4	Protein Aggregation Cromwell, Mary		111

Section II

Formulation Development and Drug Delivery of Protein Products

Chapter 5	Formulation Development of Therapeutic Proteins Mahler, Hanns-Christian; Mekking, Albert	 144
Chapter 6	Drying Methods for Protein Formulations Wiggenhorn, Michael; Presser, Ingo; Winter, Gerhard	 162
Chapter 7	Highly Concentrated Protein Formulations Friess, Wolfgang; Mahler, Hanns-Christian; Jörg, Susanne	 192
Chapter 8	Packaging Materials for Protein Formulation Hormes, Robert; Petersen, Claudia	 221
Chapter 9	Considerations for Aseptic Manufacturing of Biotech Drug Products Restetzki, Lars; Mahler, Hanns-Christian	 244
Chapter 10	Role of Pharmacokinetics/Pharmacodynamics for Proteins Richter, Wolfgang F.	 260

Section III

Special Considerations for Protein Formulations

Chapter 11	Impact of the Formulation on the Immunogenicity of Protein Drugs Kropshofer, Harald; Schellekens, Huub	 294
------------	--	-----------

Section IV

Advanced Formulation Techniques for Improved Drug Delivery

Chapter 12	Pegylation and Drug Modifying Techniques for Sustained Drug Action Müller, Claudia; Borchard, Gerrit		312
Chapter 13	Site-specific Delivery of Protein Drugs de Vreeh, Remco L. A.		354
Chapter 14	Particulate and Hydrogel-based Protein Delivery Systems for Parenteral Administration Luessen, Henrik L.; van Winden, Ewoud C. A.		369
Chapter 15	Lipid Formulations for Protein and Peptide Drugs van Winden, Ewoud C. A.; Luessen, Henrik L.		392

Section V

Regulatory Issues of Parenteral Protein Formulations

Chapter 16	Registration of Biotechnology Products Sonnega, Carina E. A.		424
Chapter 17	The North American View of Parenteral Regulations Boylan, James C.		439
