

Contents

Acknowledgments — VII

Introduction: “An Outrage and a Phantasm” — 1

Chapter 1

What Is a Figure of Absence? Theoretical Frameworks — 25

- 1.1 Against the Metaphysics of Presence: Heidegger and Derrida — 28
- 1.2 The Figural Void: Absence in Post-Lyotard Figural Thinking — 39
 - 1.2.1 Discourses on the Figure after Lyotard — 40
 - 1.2.2 Figures and Figurations of Absence — 46
- 1.3 The Empty Signifier: Laclau and the Politics of Absence — 56
- 1.4 Textual and Visual Absences: Belting and Blanchot — 63

Chapter 2

Non-Anthropomorphic Figures of Absence — 72

- 2.1 Figures of Written Absence — 72
 - 2.1.1 Empty Books — 75
 - 2.1.2 Die-Cut Books — 79
 - 2.1.3 Writing Without: Lipogramatic Writing — 85
 - 2.1.4 The Missing Text — 90
 - 2.1.5 Writing Nothing — 94
- 2.2 Figures of Painted/Framed Absence — 101
- 2.3 Figures of Absence in Curatorial Practice — 111
- 2.4 Figures of Absence in Performative Arts — 116
- 2.5 Figures of Absence in Experimental Cinema — 123
- 2.6 Unwritten Books and Unpainted Canvases — 133

Chapter 3

Anthropomorphic Figures of Absence — 138

- 3.1 Absence as a Literary Character — 138
- 3.2 The Absent Self: Bureaucratic Subjects and the Archive — 144
- 3.3 The Absent Other: The Atlantic Man and the Troubled Waters of Absence — 164
 - 3.3.1 Absence and Intermediality — 166

X — Contents

3.3.2 Absence and Repetition — 174

3.4 Subjects of Absence — 183

Conclusion: Politics and Poetics of Absence — 191

Bibliography — 199

Index — 213