

Table of Contents

In/Securities: Queer Life Narratives of Early Modern Times – Some Guiding Thoughts Daniela Fuhrmann and Gaby Pailer	7
Does War Bring out the Devil in You? Demonization in Grimmelshausen's Simplicissimus Teutsch (1668/1669) Daniela Fuhrmann	15
“Clothes make the man”: Fashion/ing Grimmelshausen's Picaros Sarah Möller	37
Courasche and the Queer Life of Objects Ervin Malakaj	55
Naming in Grimmelshausen's Simplicissimus Teutsch Laurie Ann Henderson	75
Agrippina's Queer After/Life: Consequences of the Thirty Years' War and the Breslau School Stage (Lohenstein's Agrippina ; 1665/1666) Benjamin R. Davis	91
Self-Editing, Allegory, Parody: The Life-Writing of Johanna Eleonora Petersen Patricia Milewski	109
Chimerical Selves: Grimmelshausen's Simplicissimus and Kehlmann's Tyll Brigid Garvey	127
Perpetual Escape: The Impossibility of Containment in Angela Steidele's Rosenstengel Steve Commichau	143
Life as a Balancing Act: Angela Steidele's Rosenstengel and Daniel Kehlmann's Tyll Gaby Pailer	159