

Contents

Acknowledgements	XI
Introduction: Nettoyer l'étude de la poussière	1
Sources	19

Part I – Renaudot, His Projects, and His Audiences

1 Renaudot's (Not So) Innocent Inventions: The Bureau d'Adresse and the Question of the Poor	23
2 Neither Vulgar nor Pedantic: The Conférences' Audience(s)	39
3 An Amalgamation of Novelty and Tradition: Knowledge Negotiation at the Conférences	57

Part II – Debating Cultures in the Conférences

4 The Conférences' Foundations: Origins and Predecessors	77
4.1 Debating without Compromise: Scholastic Disputation	78
4.2 Blurring the Boundaries between Orality and Print: Declamation	89
4.3 A Plurivocal Imagination: Dialogue	99
5 Un divertissement honnête : The Conférences' Purpose and Format, between Orality and Print	113
5.1 Orality, Print, and the Intentional Construction of Debates	115
5.2 Power to the Public	121
5.3 The Conférences and Political Power	130

Part III – Two Case Studies

6 Degrees of Perfection: The Conférences and the Querelle des Femmes	143
6.1 Querelle in the Conférences : „Ce combat icy de la noblesse & dignité de l'un au dessus de l'autre“	145
6.2 The Presence or Absence of Women at the Debate Meetings and the Rhetorical Nature of the Querelle	153
6.3 Beyond the Querelle : “Ce n'est pas estre homme ou estre femme qui fait estre noble ou ne l'estre pas”	165

7	The Medical Conférences or “quand la raison repugne à l’expérience”	173
7.1	The Notion of Expérience in the Conférences in General	176
7.1.1	Different Kinds of Expérience in the Conférences	177
7.1.2	The Aristotelian Notion of Experientia	188
7.1.3	Differentiated Experience: Experimentum and Observatio	191
7.2	Experience in the Medical Conférences	196
7.2.1	Different Kinds of Expérience in the Medical Conférences	198
7.2.2	The Battle of Reason and Experience	203
7.2.3	Empirical Evidence against the Knowledge of the Ancients?	207
7.2.4	Occult Qualities Experienced	213
7.3	Natura gaudet paucis or grands secrets de chimie : The Case of Chemical Remedies	224
7.3.1	Argumentative Armamentarium: The Parisian Faculty of Medicine versus Renaudot	225
7.3.2	“S’il est bon de se servir de remèdes chymiques?”	230
7.3.3	The Rise, Fall, and Afterlife of Renaudot’s Medical Endeavours ..	236
	Conclusion: L’étude, nettoyée de la poussière?	249
	Bibliography	253