

C O N T E N T S.

BRAZIL.

CHAPTER I.

| | Page |
|-----------------------|------|
| Voyage to Rio Janeiro | 1 |
| Rio Janeiro | 6 |
| Praya Grande | 15 |
| Rio Janeiro | 17 |

CHAPTER II.

| | |
|-----------------------------|----|
| Excursion in the Interior | 19 |
| Novo Friburgo | 35 |
| Swiss Cottage | 39 |
| Novo Friburgo | 41 |
| Shooting Excursion | 43 |
| Swiss Settlement | 45 |
| Emigration to South America | 51 |

CHAPTER III.

| | |
|---------------------------------------|----|
| Excursion into the Interior continued | 53 |
| Canta Gallo | 53 |
| Swiss Settler | 54 |

| | Page |
|-----------------------------|------|
| Farm of Lavrinhas | 56 |
| Contraband Miners | 61 |
| Influence of the Mines | 63 |
| Canta Gallo | 65 |
| Departure from Canta Gallo | 67 |
| Swiss Widow | 69 |
| View near St. Erita | 71 |
| Description of a Farm-house | 73 |
| Rude Manners of the People | 74 |
| Indian Natives | 77 |

CHAPTER IV.

| | |
|---|----|
| Arrival at Aldea da Pedra | 78 |
| Roman Catholic Missionary | 79 |
| First Meeting of Indians and Missionary | 81 |
| Bad Success of Indian Missions | 83 |
| Tribe of Puris | 85 |
| Indian Character | 86 |
| Indian Superstitions | 89 |
| Swiss Settlers | 90 |
| Sugar Plantation | 93 |
| Journey to St. Fidele continued | 95 |
| St. Fidele | 97 |

CHAPTER V.

| | |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| Return to Rio Janeiro | 99 |
| Drunken Indians | 101 |
| Cavalcade of Ladies | 103 |
| Political Opinions | 105 |
| Morning Prayers on a Plantation | 107 |
| Party of Gamblers | 109 |
| Arrival at Praya Grande | 111 |

CHAPTER VI.

| | Page |
|-----------------------------------|------|
| Excursion to Santa Cruz | 112 |
| Palace of Santa Cruz | 113 |
| Wretched Condition of the Negroes | 114 |
| Plain of Santa Cruz | 117 |
| Sugar Engenho of Taguahy | 118 |
| Scenery near Rio | 123 |

CHAPTER VII.

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| General Survey of Brazilian History | 125 |
| Emigration of John VI. to Rio | 127 |
| Foreign Population at Rio | 128 |
| Intercourse with Foreigners | 131 |
| Description of the Portuguese Court | 132 |
| Official Corruption | 134 |
| Administration of Justice | 137 |
| Revolution at Lisbon | 139 |
| The New Constitution | 141 |
| Influence of Public Opinion | 143 |
| Stagnation of Trade | 145 |
| Rupture with Portugal | 147 |
| Natural Resources of Brazil | 149 |
| Amount of the Population | 150 |
| African Slaves | 153 |
| Effects of Slavery | 154 |
| State of Religion among the Slaves | 156 |
| Mulattoes | 159 |
| White Creole Population | 161 |
| Merchants | 163 |
| Official Characters | 165 |
| Political Opinions | 167 |
| Reform difficult | 169 |

CHILE.

CHAPTER VIII.

| | Page |
|--|------|
| Voyage round Cape Horn, and Residence in Chile | 173 |
| Arrival at Valparaiso. | 175 |
| Appearance of the Town | 176 |
| Peons | 179 |
| First View of the Andes | 181 |
| Chilean Mines | 182 |
| St. Jago | 184 |
| Theatre—Lancasterian School | 187 |
| Decree on Public Education | 189 |
| Collegiate Recitation | 192 |
| St. Jago | 195 |
| Maypo—Salta de Agua | 197 |

CHAPTER IX.

| | |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| View of Society and Public Affairs | 199 |
| Chilean Ladies | 200 |
| Political Remarks | 203 |
| Chilean Constitution | 205 |
| Public Press | 206 |
| Excursion to Quillota | 208 |
| Mode of Threshing | 211 |
| Quillota | 212 |
| Revolutionary Miseries | 214 |
| Ladies of Quillota | 217 |
| Departure | 218 |

PERU.

CHAPTER X.

| | Page |
|-------------------------------|------|
| Residence in Lima | 223 |
| Callao | 224 |
| Lima | 227 |
| Churches of Lima | 229 |
| Church Procession | 230 |
| Saya and Manto | 232 |
| Baths of Lima | 235 |
| Changes in National Customs | 237 |
| Country around Lima | 239 |
| Bull-bait | 240 |
| Mines of Pasco | 242 |
| Burial-ground | 247 |
| Defeat of General Tristan | 249 |
| Grand Fête | 251 |
| Public Alarm | 253 |
| Reported Insurrection | 255 |
| Peruvian Regiment | 256 |
| Public Misery | 259 |
| Prejudice against Medicine | 261 |
| Corruption of Public Officers | 262 |
| Country Excursion | 265 |
| Peruvian Farmer | 267 |
| Ancient Indian Town | 268 |
| Troop of Llamas | 277 |

CHAPTER XI.

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| Residence in Lima continued | 278 |
| Chorillos | 279 |
| Country around Chorillos | 281 |
| Lord Cochrane | 282 |

| | Page |
|-----------------------------|------|
| Revolutionary Leaders | 284 |
| Banishment of the Spaniards | 287 |
| Spanish Prisoners | 288 |
| Proclamation | 291 |
| Patriotic Procession | 297 |
| Bull-fight | 299 |
| Mint | 305 |
| National Procession | 307 |
| Patriotic Oration | 309 |
| Departure | 310 |

REMARKS ON SOUTH AMERICA.

CHAPTER XII.

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| Rise and Progress of the Revolution | 313 |
| Rebellions in Paraguay and Peru | 314 |
| Commencement of the Revolution | 317 |
| Revolutionary War | 319 |
| Buenos Ayres | 321 |
| Revolution in Chile | 322 |
| Triumph of the Patriots | 325 |
| Expedition against Lima | 327 |
| Success of Bolivar in Peru | 329 |
| Upper Peru | 331 |
| Population of Peru and Lima | 332 |
| Public Feeling in England | 335 |
| Influence of Physical Causes | 337 |
| Population | 338 |
| Spaniards | 340 |
| Negro Slaves | 342 |
| Peruvian Indians | 344 |
| Forms of Government | 349 |
| Disunion of the States of La Plata | 351 |

CONTENTS.

xi

| | Page |
|-------------------------------|------------|
| State of Religion | 353 |
| Progress of Infidelity | 354 |
| Political Prospects | 357 |

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

CHAPTER XIII.

| | |
|---------------------------------------|------------|
| Voyage to the Sandwich Islands | 361 |
| Arrival at Hannah-rourah | 363 |
| Interview with the King | 365 |
| Queens | 367 |
| Missionaries | 369 |
| Kind Reception of Missionaries | 371 |
| Visit to the King repeated | 372 |
| Whyteete | 374 |
| Ruins of Morais | 377 |
| Interior of the Country | 379 |
| Romantic Scenery | 380 |
| Manner of Cooking | 382 |
| Tyranny of the Chiefs | 384 |
| Excursion round the Island | 387 |
| American Festival | 388 |
| Anecdote of the King | 390 |
| Why-arouah | 392 |
| Appearance of the Country | 394 |
| Hourah-hourah | 396 |
| Indian Hut | 400 |
| Ancient Monumental Stone | 403 |
| Cannibalism | 405 |
| Sandal-wood | 407 |
| Conversation with Coxe | 408 |
| Mountain of Mounah-reah | 410 |

| | Page |
|---------------------------------|------|
| Beautiful Scenery | 413 |
| Habits of the Natives | 414 |
| Funeral Dirges | 417 |
| Human Improvement | 419 |
| The Queen at her Studies | 421 |
| Visit to Krimakoo | 423 |
| Present of the King of England | 425 |
| A White Settler | 426 |
| Progress of Education | 428 |
| Relic belonging to Cook's Image | 431 |
| Expounding of the Scriptures | 433 |
| Last Visit to the King | 435 |
| Departure | 437 |

CHAPTER XIV.

| | |
|-----------------------------------|-----|
| Geography and Population | 438 |
| King Tama-hama-hah | 440 |
| Succession of Reho-reho | 443 |
| Meeting of Two Rival Kings | 445 |
| Destruction of Idolatry | 447 |
| Form of Government | 448 |
| Punishment of a Refractory Tenant | 451 |
| Condition of the People | 453 |
| Chiefs | 454 |
| Sandal-wood Trade | 457 |
| Vegetable Productions | 459 |
| Amount of Shipping | 461 |
| Speculation of the King to Canton | 463 |
| Import Trade | 465 |
| Use of Foreign Manufactured Goods | 467 |
| Prevailing Vices | 469 |
| National Customs and Opinions | 471 |
| Superstitions | 473 |
| Progress of Civilization | 475 |
| Blessings of Christianity | 476 |