

Contents

Prefacexi

1. Down with Fraggie Rock: Freckles, Red Hair, and Stones..... 1
Introduction 1
Goals.....8

2. There’s Nobody New under the Sun: Some
Are Told They Can Play Outside and Some
Are Warned Against It..... 11
Introduction 11
Race.....13
 Biological Origins.....14
 Time Overview.....15
 Critical Race Theory17
Racism.....18
 Internalized Racism20
Colorism.....21
 Early Stages of Colorism22
 Passing.....23
 Too Light—Too Dark.....24
 Which Black Is Beautiful.....26

Family	27
Conclusion	30
 3. Skin Tone and Attitude: Color Stratification
Amongst Black Actresses	33
Introduction	34
Film Industry	36
Mammy, Sapphire, and Jezebel	37
Mammy.....	37
Sapphire	38
Jezebel	39
Trinary Thinking.....	41
Stereotypes and Reality	43
Light Skinned Objects	44
My Fantasy and Reality	45
School Daze	45
Conclusion	48
 4. Tales of a Melanated Sistah: Journaling
through Colorism.....	51
Introduction	51
Family.....	53
Why Would I Do This to My Kids?.....	55
Not Wanting to Be an AKA.....	58
Even Tanning Can't Take the Pain Away.....	61
Self-Actualization—Proving My Blackness.....	63
She Is a REAL Sistah	65
Divided Perception: They Like Him Better.....	67
I Am Light Skin Darn It!.....	70
#teamlightskin.....	72
Conclusion	73
 5. You Can't Stay in the Past So How Do We Move Forward: Education as a Form of
Liberation	75
Golden	79
Liberation through Education.....	80
Community.....	81
Culturally Relevant Classrooms	82
Media Responsibility.....	84
Intergroup Dialogue.....	86
Journaling.....	87
Conclusion	88

Bibliography.....91

Index.....99