

Contents

Chapter 1 – Introduction

Christian Wiesner, Baiba Martinsons, Maria Therese Jensen and Kerstin Angelika Zechner

Wellbeing in the teachers' profession: Theoretical Considerations and Multi-Cultural Research in Europe 9

Chapter 2 – Spain

Alba Merino-Cajaraville, Carlos Ramírez-Moreno, Irene García-Lázaro and Salvador Reyes-de-Cózar

Defining a game-based learning proposal to work with teachers' professional wellbeing: the Teaching to Be video game 35

Chapter 3 – Latvia

Baiba Martinsons and Aija Vanaga

Approaching teachers' professional wellbeing from different angles:
Teachers' self-efficacy, burnout and resilience through participation in the Online Wellbeing course 55

Chapter 4 – Portugal

José Reis-Jorge, Patrícia Pacheco, Marco Ferreira, Ana Barqueira and Isabel Baltazar

School climate and teachers' professional wellbeing in Portugal:
A School Climate Analytical Framework (SCAF) 81

Chapter 5 – Norway

Kaja Lillelien, Trond Rekstad and Maria Therese Jensen

Developing and Implementing a Cross-Cultural Digital Intervention on teachers' professional well-being in a Norwegian Context 107

Chapter 6 – Lithuania

Vilma Žydžiūnaitė and Aušra Rutkienė

Professional Burnout and its Relation to Self-Efficacy and Perceived Stress:
The Case of Lithuanian Teachers 127

Chapter 7 – Austria

*Christian Wiesner, Kerstin Angelika Zechner, Sylvia Dörfler, Hannes Karrer
and Beate Schrank*

Perspectives for unfolding well-being in the context of teacher education:
Emerging well-being Insights from Theoretical Austrian Traditions 159

Authors..... 181