

Table of Contents

---

Series Editor's Preface: Global Crises and the Media Simon Cottle	vii
Preface	xiii

► Section 1: Climate Change in a Global Context

1. Climate Change and the Media: The Scale of the Challenge Justin Lewis and Tammy Boyce	3
2. Talking Rubbish: Green Citizenship, Media, and the Environment Richard Maxwell and Toby Miller	17
3. Ideological Construction of Climate Change in Australian and New Zealand Newspapers Rowan Howard-Williams	28

► Section 2: Beyond Uncertainty and Balance? Media Frames and Public Understanding

4. Media Communications and Public Understanding of Climate Change: Reporting Scientific Consensus on Anthropogenic Warming Catherine Butler and Nick Pidgeon	43
5. Climate Change, the Public, and the Media in the UK: A Watershed Moment Robert E.T. Ward	59
6. The Climate Change Docudrama: Challenges in Simultaneously Entertaining and Informing Audiences Grace Reid	65
7. An Environmentalist/Economic Hybrid Frame in US Press Coverage of Climate Change, 2000–2008 Stephen Zehr	80

- |    |   |    |
|----|---|----|
| 8. | Balancing Acts: PR, "Impartiality," and Power in Mass Media Coverage of Climate ChangeTim Holmes | 92 |
|----|---|----|

► Section 3: The Politics of Climate Change Coverage

- |     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| 9.  | Climate Action and Environmental Activism:The Role of Environmental NGOs and GrassrootsMovements in the Global Politics of Climate ChangeJulie Doyle | 103 |
| 10. | Mediated Messages about Climate Change:Reporting the IPCC Fourth Assessment in the UK Print MediaMike Hulme  | 117 |
| 11. | The Web and Climate Change Politics: Lessons from Britain?Neil T. Gavin  | 129 |

► Section 4: The Role of National Agendas

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 12. | Time to Adapt? Media Coverage of Climate Changein Nonindustrialised CountriesMike Shanahan  | 145 |
| 13. | The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly: Framing of Chinain News Media Coverage of Global Climate ChangeYan Wu  | 158 |
| 14. | Complementary Problems, Competing Risks:Climate Change, Nuclear Energy, and the AustralianLyn McGaurr and Libby Lester                               | 174 |
| 15. | Preparations for a Post-Kyoto Media Coverageof UK Climate PolicyAlex Lockwood   | 186 |
| 16. | Global Warming through the Same Lens: An ExplorativeFraming Study in Dutch and French NewspapersAstrid Dirikx and Dave Gelders                              | 200 |
| 17. | Individualisation and Nationalisation of the Climate Issue:Two Ideological Horizons in Swedish News MediaPeter Berglez, Birgitta Höjer, and Ulrika Olausson | 211 |
|     | Bibliography   | 225 |
|     | About the Contributors   | 253 |
|     | Index  | 257 |