

Contents

Acknowledgment	7
Preface	9
Abbreviations	11
1 Introduction: Sexuality Education and Gender in Armenian Schools	13
1.1 Sexuality Education	13
1.2 “Healthy Lifestyle” Program in Armenian Schools	15
1.3 Conceptual Framework	18
1.4 Aim and Research Methods	21
1.5 Overview of the Structure	22
2 Theoretical Assumptions of the Construction and Doing of Gender	25
2.1 Theoretical Assumptions of the Study	25
2.2 Social Constructionism and Nature and Nurture of Gender	28
2.2.1 Central Characteristics	30
2.2.2 Nature and Nurture (Constructionism)	33
2.3 Poststructuralist Approach to Gender	36
2.4 Ethnomethodology, Doing Gender and Doing Classroom	38
2.4.1 Doing Gender	41
2.4.2 Doing Gender in Classroom	44
3 Gender (In)equality in Armenia	47
3.1 Historical Look	47
	5

3.2	Religion and Gender	57
3.3	Family, Gender Roles and Violence	61
3.3.1	Domestic Violence: Legal Mechanisms and Social Norms	68
4	Sexuality Education and Healthy Lifestyle Program	75
4.1	Main Forms of Sexuality Education	81
4.2	School-based Sexuality Education and Teachers	86
4.3	Healthy Lifestyle – Armenian Approach to Sexuality Education	92
5	Methodology: Examining and Reconstructing Gender Knowledge in Healthy Lifestyle Classroom Discussions	99
5.1	Research Question	99
5.2	Research Paradigm	100
5.3	Stages of Data Collection	102
5.3.1	Interviews with Healthy Lifestyle Educators in 2016	102
5.3.2	Healthy Lifestyle Classroom Observations in 2018	105
5.3.3	Observation of Healthy Lifestyle Teacher's Trainings and Informal Interviews	109
5.4	Data Analysis with the Documentary Method	109
5.4.1	Selection of Passages	113
5.4.2	Analytical Steps	114
5.4.3	Main Terms	116
5.5	Example of Analyzing Procedure	118
5.5.1	Formulating Interpretation	122
5.5.2	Reflecting Interpretation	123
5.6	Ethical Considerations	127
5.7	Reflexivity and Epistemological Positioning	132
6	Results: Reconstruction of Gendered Knowledge in Healthy Lifestyle Lessons	135
6.1	Unwanted Pregnancy, Responsible Behaviour, Abstinence	137
6.2	Gender Roles and Abuse of Power	195
6.2.1	Gender and Family	206
6.2.2	Societal Attitude, Family and Gender	213
6.2.3	Household Responsibilities and Gender	238
6.3	Sense-genetic Typification: Moralization, Cultural Essentialism and Gender Essentialism	255

7	Discussion: Moralization and Essentialization of Gender and Culture	273
7.1	Central Orientation Frameworks and Gender Construction	275
7.2	Gender in Schools and Healthy Lifestyle	284
7.3	Limitations of the Study	292
8	Conclusion: Healthy Lifestyle in the Armenian Schools and Construction of Gendered Knowledge	295
8.1	Gender Discourse in Armenian Schools: Summary	295
8.2	Healthy Lifestyle, Knowledge Contribution and Recommendations	301
	Bibliography	309
	Transcription Code according to Przyborski and Bohnsack	327