

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgement	xv
Notes on terminology	xvii
Abbreviations	xix
1 Introduction	1
The creation of a new religious and political landscape of Montenegro	7
The desecularisation of Yugoslav politics	8
The “root” of the rising Serbian nationalism	10
The study of the ideology and practice of history writing	11
Nationalism and religion: The same order?	14
Studies of saints and sites	20
Key concepts and sources	23
2 Eastern Orthodoxy in Montenegro and former Yugoslavia	27
Slavic migration and medieval churches	28
The rise of the Vladikas	34

The Orthodox Church in independent Montenegro and Yugoslavia before 1989	37
The Serbian Church in Montenegro from 1989	40
The creation of the Montenegrin Church	50
Rising conflict between state and church	61
Head to head in 2019–2020	64
Challenging the state framework	71
3 The Eastern Orthodox ideology of history writing	75
Towards Eastern Orthodox historiographical orders	77
The development of state-centred historiography: The Eusebian history of salvation	82
The dismantling of a state-centred historiography	85
Athanasian historiography today	90
4 The making of Serbian Orthodoxy in history	95
Njegoš's notion of history and the Divine	96
Velimirović and the return to St Sava	100
Popović: Orthodoxy beyond the confinement of the state	104
Amfilohije and the embodiment of salvation	110
5 Saints and place-making in Montenegro	113
The cults of Jovan Vladimir	115
The cult of Duklja	128
The sainthood of Petar I	138
Canonising Petar II: Njegoš	145
Saints, neo-martyrs and the forgotten tombs	156
The creation of cults	158
6 Outlook on the politics of history writing in Eastern Europe	161
North Macedonia: The history of the Archbishopric of Ohrid revisited	162
Bulgaria: The homecoming of national neo-martyrs	169
A final outlook to Ukraine: From brotherhood to division	175
History and memory	179

7	Towards a theory of nationalisation of the sacred	181
	Towards a definition of Orthodox historiographical practice in Montenegro	183
	Religious ideology	186
	The history of the saints or the nations?	188
	Bibliography	191
	Index	215