

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
DAVID WALTON & DAGMAR SCHEU
General Introduction	1

Part One. Unofficial Knowledge(s): Representation, Identity and Power

Preliminary Matters	15
DAVID WALTON
Producing Unofficial Knowledge(s) in Spain: the (Cultural) Politics of Exclusion	17
JOHN FROW & DAVID WALTON
Hegemony and the Articulation of Otherness: Some Theses	39

The Politics Of Race, Nation and Narration	45
CHRIS WEEDON Discourses of Race and Ethnicity in Contemporary British Culture	47
ROSA GONZÁLEZ The Myth of the Family in Irish Catholic Discourse	63
CYNTHIA J. MILLER Relations of Absence: the Imaginative Spaces called 'Homelands'	79
DORA SALES Vikram Chandra's Love and Longing in Bombay : the Order of Emotion	91
The Politics Of Sex and Sexuality	109
CHANTAL CORNUT-GENTILLE D'ARCY Laughter Can Be About Power. The World of Women's Magazines in Absolutely Fabulous	111
MÓNICA CALVO PASCUAL Fried Green Tomatoes : Lesbian Erasure and Unofficial Challenge	131

The Politics of Knowledge: Production, Origins and Identity	145
GLENN JORDAN Whose Story is it? On the Multiple Births of Cultural Studies	147
ÁLVARO PINA Going out of Bounds: Cultural Studies, the Academic Establishment, and the Official Politics of Knowledge	173
DAV(O)ID WALTON Creative-critickle Acts and the Theo-heretical Magnidefying Glass: a Foolosophy of the Uncannyscious and the Un-off-ish-al Production of Knowledge	195
LAWRENCE NORMAND Witchcraft and Kingship in the North Berwick Witch Hunt and Shakespeare's Macbeth	213
Education, Culture and Power	229
FIONA DEAN A Reconnaissance of the Fortress: Dismantling Hegemony in the Arts and Education	231
PALOMA FRESNO CALLEJA 'An Apple for the Teacher': Un/Official Schools and Ways of Teaching in Bicultural New Zealand	247

Part Two. Linguistic Approaches to Unofficial Knowledge(s)

Language, Discourse and Power	261
ALVINO E. FANTINI ESOL: International Language, Intercultural Challenge	263
FERNANDO PRIETO RAMOS Europe and its Others: Implicit Ideologies in Official Discourses of Tolerance	287
JOSÉ SAURA SÁNCHEZ & DAGMAR SCHEU Unofficial Assumptions of Primary Teachers about Ethnic Minorities in Spanish State Schools	301
Language and Communication. Politeness, (Mis)Understanding and Power	321
PATRICIA BOU-FRANCH Misunderstandings and Unofficial Knowledge in Institutional Discourse	323
MARÍA DOLORES GARCÍA-PASTOR Face Aggravation, Mitigation, and 'Unofficial' Power in a Political Campaign Debate	347