

Contents

List of Abbreviations	8
Book Series of the Willibald Gebhardt Research Institute	10
1 Introduction: From Inception to Publication	13
2 Historical Review: Challenges and Leadership during the First 50 Years of FINA	16
2.1 Hal Henning and the History of International Swimming	16
2.2 The First Important Challenge: The Olympic Games and the Organization of World Swimming	17
2.3 Political Challenges in the Period of World Wars and their Consequences	20
2.4 Challenges Caused by Technical Modifications of Swimming and the Extension of the Agenda of Events	23
2.5 Differences of Opinion between IOC and FINA	26
2.6 Leadership in World Swimming during the first 50 Years of FINA	28
3 Harold W. Henning – the Career and Ascent of a Great Sportsman and Leader	41
3.1 The Athlete	42
3.2 Judge, Coach and Manager	45
3.3 Administration and Leadership	46

4	The Challenges in World Swimming During the 50th and 75th Anniversaries of FINA	50
4.1	Steady Upward Trend in World Swimming	50
4.2	Political Challenges	55
4.2.1	The China-Taiwan Problem	55
4.2.2	Racial Policy in Rhodesia and South Africa	59
4.2.3	Domestic Social Problems Jeopardized in the 1976 Olympic Games in Canada	63
4.2.4	Economic Problems and the Upcoming Commercialization	64
5	Lasting Involvements in China Affairs	71
5.1	The United Nations China Resolution 1971 and the Concern of Swimming	71
5.2	The New China Policy under President Nixon and the Involvement of US Swimming	73
5.3	China and the First World Championship, Belgrade 1973	78
5.4	The Asian Games, Teheran 1974	79
6	Troubles Arising From the Racial Policy in Rhodesia and South Africa	88
7	Fighting for the Olympic Facilities at Montreal	99
8	Fighting against Endeavors to Reduce the Olympic Program	107

9	Leadership, Acknowledgement, Distinction and Ambition
	– a Final View	118
9.1	Leadership	120
9.2	Acknowledgement	121
9.3	Distinction	129
9.4	Olympic Ambition	131
10	List of Sources and References	139
	List of Illustrations	142