

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction	11
Chapter 2: Afghan Women in social and political imagery	23
2.1 The political discourse	23
2.2 Humanitarian Aid in Afghanistan	31
2.3 Postcolonial and transnational feminist perspective	41
Chapter 3: The status of women throughout the Afghan History	47
3.1 Afghanistan under King Amir Abdur Rahman—1880 - 1901	50
3.2 Afghanistan under King Amanullah—1919 - 1929	51
3.3 Afghanistan under Nadir Shah—1929 - 1933	58
3.4 Afghanistan under Zahir Shah—1933 - 1973	58
3.5 Afghanistan under Communist rule—1978 - 1992	63
3.6 Afghanistan under the Mujahideen rule—1992 - 1996	67
3.7 Afghanistan under the rule of the Taliban—1996 - 2001	69
Chapter 4: Methodology and Methods	73
4.1 Research Context—What it means to do research in a conflict zone	73
4.2 Methodological approach	79
4.3 Methods	88
4.3.1 The interviews	89
4.3.2 The projective essays	93
4.3.3 The drawings	98
4.3.4 The analysis and presentation of the data	101
Chapter 5: Case Vignettes	105
5.1 Case vignette: Razia	107

5.2 Case Vignette: Farishta	114
5.3 Case Vignette: Nilofar	119
5.4 Case Vignette: Gul-Afshan	122
5.5 Case Vignette: Zuhul	126
5.6 Case Vignette: Shabana	129
5.7 Case Vignette: Nazeneen	132
5.8 Case Vignette: Mohsina	134
5.9 Case Vignette: Satayesh	136
Chapter 6: Suffering and Solidarity—Interpretive Perspectives and Theoretical Rapprochements	139
6.1 Narratives of Suffering and Expressions of Solidarity	139
6.2 Solidarity—A theoretical rapprochement	150
6.2.1 What is solidarity?	151
6.2.2 Solidarity in feminist and postcolonial theory	153
6.3 Expressions of Solidarity as an Expression of Agency	158
Conclusion	163
Literature	173