

CONTENTS

Kuruvilla Pandikattu / Andreas Vonach
Introduction by the Editors	9

Part I: Social and economical drafts and realities

Georg Fischer
How can the rich love the poor? Old Testament suggestions for our present-day economy	15
Max Preglau
Disenchantment and re-enchantment of the world: Inescapable dialectics?	23
Mathew Jayanth
Ecology, economics and ethics: Sustainable development as a frame- work for a planetary ethics	39
Wilhelm Guggenberger
Worry, time and the spirit of social systems	59

Part II: Economy, society and politics from theological and historical points of view

Boris Repschinski
Of mice and men and Matthew 2	75
Noel Sheth
Conflict and reconciliation between the Hindu Deities Visnu and Śiva	95
Andreas Vonach
In the name of God: The theological and social components of Ancient Israel's wars and their relationship to some of today's struggles	115
Roman A. Siebenrock
Christian witness after Christianity: John Henry Newman's life as an example of theological responsibility in a changing society	127

Part III: Focussing the Indian situation

Kuruvilla Pandikattu

Indian Paradox: Scientifically forward, economically backward, spiritually inward 143

Lorenzo Fernando

Socio-economic and political context of India in a pastoral perspective ... 159

Evelyn Monteiro

Hindu nationalism and women in India 171

Part IV: Religious movements and families in interaction with society and economy

Mohan Doss

Jains and Entrepreneurship: Interplay of religion and society towards economic progress 193

Winfried Löffler

Financing the churches: Some european systems in comparison 209

Wolfgang Palaver / Raymund Schwager e.a.

September 11, 2001 and a theology of the signs of the time 227

Mattokil C. Abraham

Religious Fundamentalism: A psycho-social perspective 239