

Contents

I. People, Cattle and Land – An Introduction

People, Cattle and Land – Transformations of Pastoral Society

Michael Bollig and Jan-Bart Gewald 3

II. The Emergence of Pastoral Strategies and Social Developments in Southwestern Africa

The Origins of Pastoralism in Namibia

Andrew B. Smith 55

Archaeological Evidence from the Early Pastoral Period in North-west Namibia

Thomas Frank 77

Picturing Ecology through Animal Metaphorism – Prehistoric Hunter-Gatherers and the First Pastro-Foragers in Namibia

Tilman Lenssen-Erz 95

The Language History of Herero as a Source of Ethnohistorical Interpretations

Wilhelm J. G. Möhlig 119

III. Formations and Transformations of Pastoral Societies

Ozongombe, Omavita and Ozondjembo – The Process of (Re-)Pastoralization amongst Herero in Pre-colonial 19th Century Central Namibia

Dag Henrichsen 149

Colonization, Genocide and Resurgence: The Herero of Namibia 1890-1933

Jan-Bart Gewald 187

A Sign of the Times: Samuel Maharero's Body and the Legitimation of Herero Leadership

Hildi Hendrickson 227

From Communal Pastures to Enclosures –
The Development of Land Tenure in Herero Reserves

Wolfgang Werner 247

IV. The Economic Organization of Livestock Husbandry in the 20th Century

Production and Exchange among the Himba of Northwestern Namibia

Michael Bollig 271

Drought and Mureti's Grave: The “we/us” Boundaries between Kaokolanders and the People of Okakarara Area in the Early 1980s

Itaru Ohta 299

“At the End of the Day We Will Fight” –
Communal Land Rights and ‘Illegal Fencing’ in Otjozondjupa Region

Ute Stahl 319

Cry for Development: The Kaoko Development League (KDL) – Colonial Legacies and the Epupa Debate in Kaoko

Giorgio Miescher 347

V. Conceptualizations of Environment and Society

In Between House and Cattle Pen – Moving Spaces in Himbaland

Steven van Wolputte 369

Language, Culture and Environment –
The Conceptualization of Herero Cattle Terms

Andreas Eckl 401

Classifying the Animal Kingdom: Are the Himba Naturalists?
(Drawing a Lesson from the Case of the Hyena)

David Crandall 433

Contents	xi
The Politics of Death: Demarcating Land through Ritual Performance Christofer Wärnlöf	449
VI. Maintaining Pastoral Identities on the Periphery
Assembling and Resembling – Herero History in Vaalgras, Southern Namibia Jeremy Silvester	473
On the Other Side of the Frontier – Relations between Herero and ‘Bushmen’ Thomas Widlok	497b
Encapsulation, Prosperity and Hunger amongst the Kuvale of Southern Angola Ruy Duarte de Carvalho	523
List of Contributors	537