

Contents

Introduction .....	9
Chapter 1
The University and the State in Finland: A Historical Overview .....	15
The University as a State Institution.....	15
From the Periphery to the Capital City .....	18
Centre of Nation-Building.....	20
The Bildungsuniversität as the Cradle of Modern Research University .....	24
Challenges and Diminished Resources .....	27
Chapter 2
The Postwar Educational Revolution.....	35
The Breakthrough of National Planning .....	36
Cultural Policy Revival .....	40
Theories of Human Capital and the Reserves of Abilities.....	44
The Ethos of Equality.....	50
On the Threshold of a New Era .....	53
Chapter 3
To the Era of State Interventionism in Higher Education.....	61
The Rise of a National University System.....	62
Restructuring the Ministry of Education.....	68
Toward the Degree Reform .....	71
Chapter 4
The Degree Reform as a Social Utopia.....	79
The Leftist Turn in the Academe.....	81
The University in the Light of Stamocap Theories .....	90
The Changing of the Guards.....	95
The Utopian Moment .....	100
The Great Reform Plan .....	104

Chapter 5
From Dreams to Reality	111
The First Round: Circulation for Comments	113
Party-politicization as Democratization	116
The Second Round: Planning Officers in Action	122
The Resistance Rises	127
The Third Round: The Clash	137
The Final Act	148
 Epilogue:
The University and the Welfare State	159
 Bibliography	169
 Index	201