

Table of Contents

|               |   |
|---------------|---|
| Preface ..... | V |
|---------------|---|

Chapter 1

|                                                |    |
|------------------------------------------------|----|
| Introduction .....                      | 1  |
| 1.1 Statement of the Problem .....             | 1  |
| 1.2 Overview of Contemporary Scholarship ..... | 3  |
| 1.2.1 Summary of Analysis .....                | 15 |
| 1.3 The Approach Taken Here .....              | 16 |

Part One

Slave of God Traditions in Early Judaism

Chapter 2

|                                                                           |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Language of Enslavement in Early Judaism .....                 | 22 |
| 2.1 Slavery Language in the LXX .....                                     | 22 |
| 2.1.1 Layer One: Genesis – Joshua .....                                   | 23 |
| 2.1.2 Layer Two: Judges – 2 Kings .....                                   | 26 |
| 2.1.3 Layer Three: 1 Chronicles – Nehemiah, Wisdom and the Prophets ..... | 28 |
| 2.1.4 Summary of Slavery Language in the LXX .....                        | 28 |
| 2.2 Slavery Language in Early Jewish Literature .....                     | 29 |
| 2.3 Slavery Language in Josephus .....                                    | 31 |
| 2.4 Slavery Language in Philo .....                                       | 33 |
| 2.5 The Non-Usage of διδάκονος .....                               | 35 |
| 2.6 Conclusion .....                                                      | 36 |

Chapter 3

|                                                                |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Slavery in Ancient Israelite Literary Traditions .....  | 37 |
| 3.1 Slavery in the Ancient Near East .....                     | 37 |
| 3.1.1 Domestic Slavery .....                                   | 38 |
| 3.1.2 Debt Slavery .....                                       | 38 |
| 3.1.3 Temple Slavery .....                                     | 38 |
| 3.1.4 State Slavery .....                                      | 38 |
| 3.1.5 The Insider/Outsider Ideology of Slavery .....           | 39 |
| 3.2 Traditions of Slavery in Ancient Israel .....              | 40 |
| 3.2.1 Domestic Slavery in Israel .....                         | 40 |
| 3.2.2 Debt Slavery in Israel .....                             | 41 |
| 3.2.3 Temple Slavery in Israel .....                           | 44 |
| 3.2.4 State Slavery in Israel .....                            | 45 |
| 3.2.5 The Insider/Outsider Ideology of Slavery in Israel ..... | 46 |
| 3.3 The Exodus as the Source of Enslavement to God .....       | 47 |

|                                                                       |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 3.3.1 Israel as the Slaves of God.....                                | 49        |
| 3.3.2 The Rejection of God and the Return to Slavery.....             | 51        |
| 3.3.3 The Return from Foreign Slavery to Slavery under God .....      | 53        |
| 3.3.4 Slavery to God and the Royal Ideology .....                     | 54        |
| 3.4 Insider/Outsider Ideology of Slavery to God .....                 | 54        |
| 3.4.1 Slavery to God as a Self-Identification Made by Insiders.....   | 55        |
| 3.4.2 Slavery to God as an Identification Made by Outsiders.....      | 56        |
| 3.4.3 Slavery to God as an Identification Made by God.....            | 57        |
| 3.5 Conclusion .....                                                  | 58        |
| Chapter 4                                                         |           |
| Response to Slavery in Early Jewish Literature .....           | 60 |
| 4.1 A New Exodus as a Response to Justified Enslavement.....          | 60        |
| 4.1.1 1 Baruch.....                                                   | 61        |
| 4.1.2 Paraleipomena Jeremiae.....                                     | 63        |
| 4.2 A Pattern of Response to Unjustified Enslavement.....             | 66        |
| 4.2.1 Judith .....                                                    | 66        |
| 4.2.2 The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs (Levi and Joseph) ..... | 69        |
| 4.3 Conclusion .....                                                  | 74        |
| Chapter 5                                                         |           |
| Responses to Slavery in the Writings of Josephus.....          | 76 |
| 5.1 Covenant and Slavery in the Antiquities of the Jews.....          | 76        |
| 5.1.1 Covenant in Antiquities .....                                   | 76        |
| 5.1.2 Slavery in Antiquities .....                                    | 79        |
| 5.1.3 The Insider/Outsider Ideology in Josephus .....                 | 80        |
| 5.2 Responses to Slavery in the Jewish War.....                       | 81        |
| 5.2.1 The Response of Zealotism to Slavery .....                      | 82        |
| 5.2.2 Josephus' Response to Slavery.....                              | 85        |
| 5.2.3 Responses to Slavery in the Speeches of Josephus.....           | 88        |
| 5.3 Conclusion .....                                                  | 95        |
| Chapter 6                                                         |           |
| Responses to Slavery in the Writings of Philo .....            | 97 |
| 6.1 Philo as a Jewish Philosopher in a Diaspora Community .....       | 97        |
| 6.1.1 Diaspora in Alexandria .....                                    | 97        |
| 6.1.2 The Response of Alexandrian Jews to Hellenization.....          | 98        |
| 6.1.3 Philo as a Jewish Philosopher .....                             | 99        |
| 6.1.4 Summary .....                                                   | 101       |
| 6.2 Covenant and Exile in the Writings of Philo.....                  | 102       |
| 6.2.1 Covenant in Philo .....                                         | 102       |
| 6.2.2 Exile and Captivity in Philo .....                              | 104       |
| 6.2.3 The Insider/Outsider Ideology in Philo.....                     | 105       |
| 6.3 Philo's Approach to Slavery .....                                 | 106       |
| 6.3.1 Every Good Person is Free.....                                  | 106       |
| 6.3.2 The Exegetical/Expositional Material.....                       | 109       |
| 6.4 Conclusion .....                                                  | 115       |

Chapter 7

|                                                                   |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Slavery, Noble Birth and the Figure of Joseph .....        | 117 |
| 7.1 Patriarchs and Slaves in the Interpretation of Scripture..... | 117 |
| 7.2 Noble Birth as a Response to Enslavement.....                 | 122 |
| 7.2.1 Εὐγένεια in Greek Philosophical Works .....                 | 123 |
| 7.2.2 Εὐγένεια in Early Jewish Literature.....                    | 125 |
| 7.2.3 Summary .....                                               | 128 |
| 7.3 Imitation as a Form of Obedience .....                        | 129 |
| 7.4 Joseph as a Paradigmatic Enslaved Figure.....                 | 132 |
| 7.4.1 Joseph's Noble Birth .....                                  | 132 |
| 7.4.2 Joseph's Silent Endurance and Self-Humiliation .....        | 134 |
| 7.4.3 Joseph's Obedience in the Face of Death.....                | 135 |
| 7.4.4 Joseph as an Example to be Imitated .....                   | 136 |
| 7.4.5 Summary .....                                               | 138 |
| 7.5 Conclusion .....                                              | 138 |

Chapter 8

|                                            |     |
|--------------------------------------------|-----|
| Summary/Synthesis of Part One ..... | 140 |
|--------------------------------------------|-----|

Part Two

Slave of Christ in Pauline Literature

Chapter 9

|                                                              |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction to the Pauline Literature .....          | 144 |
| 9.1 Methodology .....                                        | 145 |
| 9.2 Slavery Terminology in the Pauline Correspondences ..... | 146 |
| 9.3 Paul's Use of διακονος .....                             | 147 |
| 9.4 Paul's Historical Situation .....                        | 148 |

Chapter 10

|                                                                        |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Paradigmatic Slave of God in Philippians .....              | 150 |
| 10.1 Survey of Suggested Backgrounds to Philippians 2.6–11 .....       | 150 |
| 10.1.1 The Servant of the Lord .....                                   | 151 |
| 10.1.2 The Righteous One .....                                         | 152 |
| 10.1.3 The Gnostic Redeemer .....                                      | 153 |
| 10.1.4 The Servant and Wisdom .....                                    | 153 |
| 10.1.5 The First and Last Adam .....                                   | 154 |
| 10.1.6 The Slave of God Motif in Early Judaism.....                    | 155 |
| 10.2 Exegesis of Philippians 2.6–11 .....                              | 156 |
| 10.2.1 Christ's Status Before God (v.6a).....                          | 157 |
| 10.2.2 Christ's Refusal to Use His Status (v.6b).....                  | 158 |
| 10.2.3 Christ's Choice to Become a Slave (v.7a).....                   | 159 |
| 10.2.4 Christ's Identification with the Status of Humanity (v.7b)..... | 160 |
| 10.2.5 Christ's Self-Humiliation and Obedience towards God (v.8).....  | 161 |
| 10.2.6 God's Exaltation of Christ (v.9) .....                          | 162 |
| 10.2.7 Christ's Authority over Creation (vv.10–11) .....               | 163 |
| 10.2.8 Summary of the Hymn .....                                       | 163 |

|                                                                           |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 10.3 Christ as the Slave of God in Philippians 2.6–11 .....               | 164 |
| 10.3.1 Christ and the Post-Biblical Figure of Joseph .....                | 165 |
| 10.3.2 The Hymn within the Framework of Early Judaism .....               | 170 |
| 10.4 The Hymn in the Context of the Philippian Epistle .....              | 171 |
| 10.4.1 Greco-Roman Letters of Exhortation .....                           | 171 |
| 10.4.2 Patterns of Behaviour in Philippians .....                         | 172 |
| 10.5 Paul's Self-Identification as Slave of Christ .....                  | 177 |
| 10.5.1 Christ as the Paradigmatic Slave of God .....                      | 177 |
| 10.5.2 The Philippians as the Slaves of Christ .....                      | 178 |
| 10.5.3 Slavery and the Royal Ideology .....                               | 179 |
| Chapter 11                                                            |     |
| Slavery and Freedom in Galatians .....                             | 181 |
| 11.1 Images of Slavery in Galatians 4.1–10 .....                          | 182 |
| 11.1.1 The Problem of the παιδαγωγός .....                                | 182 |
| 11.1.2 Exodus Imagery in Galatians 4.1–7 .....                            | 185 |
| 11.1.3 Enslavement to τὰ στοιχεῖα τοῦ κόσμου .....                        | 190 |
| 11.1.4 Enslavement to the στοιχεῖα as a Rejection of Slavery to God ..... | 191 |
| 11.1.5 Summary .....                                                      | 192 |
| 11.2 The Allegory of Sarah and Hagar .....                                | 193 |
| 11.2.1 Paul's Allegory and the Debate Over Slavery in Early Judaism ..... | 196 |
| 11.3 Freedom and Slavery in the Law of Christ .....                       | 197 |
| 11.3.1 Freed to be Enslaved .....                                         | 197 |
| 11.3.2 Slavery to the Law of Christ .....                                 | 198 |
| 11.3.3 Christ as the Paradigmatic Slave of God .....                      | 198 |
| 11.4 Paul the Slave of Christ .....                                       | 199 |
| 11.5 Conclusion .....                                                     | 201 |
| Chapter 12                                                            |     |
| Enslavement to Sin and God in Romans .....                         | 203 |
| 12.1 Suggested Backgrounds to Slavery Imagery in Romans .....             | 203 |
| 12.1.1 Imagery from Greco-Roman Slavery .....                             | 203 |
| 12.1.2 Imagery from the History of Israel and the Exodus .....            | 205 |
| 12.2 Images of Slavery in Romans 6 .....                                  | 207 |
| 12.2.1 The Presence of Slavery Terminology .....                          | 208 |
| 12.2.2 The General Principle of Slavery .....                             | 209 |
| 12.2.3 Paul's Apology for Using Slavery Images .....                      | 210 |
| 12.3. A Choice and Transfer Between Two Masters .....                     | 211 |
| 12.3.1 A Pattern of Teaching .....                                        | 215 |
| 12.3.2 Slavery to God as the Ultimate Goal .....                          | 216 |
| 12.3.3 Exodus Imagery in Chapter 6 .....                                  | 217 |
| 12.3.4 Summary of Analysis in Chapter 6 .....                             | 218 |
| 12.4 Slavery in Romans 7 .....                                            | 220 |
| 12.4.1 Slavery before the Christ Event (7.7–25) .....                     | 220 |
| 12.4.2 Sold under Sin (7.14) .....                                        | 223 |
| 12.4.3 Under the Control of Sin and Involuntary Enslavement .....         | 225 |
| 12.4.4 Slavery and Tension in the Pre-Eschatological Age (7.24–25) .....  | 226 |
| 12.5 Slavery in Romans 8 .....                                            | 227 |
| 12.5.1 Freedom from Slavery under Sin in the Eschatological Age .....     | 227 |
| 12.5.2 Summary of Slavery in Chapters 6, 7, 8 .....                       | 229 |

|                                                                        |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 12.6 Slavery in Romans 12, 14 and 16 .....                             | 229 |
| 12.6.1 Life in the Community .....                                     | 230 |
| 12.6.2 An Illustration from Slavery .....                              | 230 |
| 12.7 Paul the Slave of Christ .....                                    | 231 |
| Chapter 13                                                         |     |
| Slaves and Free Persons in 1 Corinthians .....                  | 234 |
| 13.1 The Freedperson and the Slave of Christ (7.21–24) .....           | 234 |
| 13.1.1 Social Status and Paul's Theology of Calling .....              | 235 |
| 13.1.2 Slave of Christ – Freedperson of the Lord .....                 | 237 |
| 13.1.3 'Bought with a Price' in 7.23 .....                             | 238 |
| 13.2 Paul as the Free Will Servant of Christ (9.16–23) .....           | 241 |
| 13.2.1 Dale Martin's Interpretation of 9.16–23 .....                   | 242 |
| 13.2.2 Paul as Free and Willing Servant (4.1–2) .....                  | 245 |
| 13.2.3 Freedom in the Context of Divine Obligation (9.16–18) .....     | 249 |
| 13.2.4 Paul's Choice (9.19) .....                                      | 253 |
| 13.2.5 Paul and Christ as Examples of Self-Enslavement .....           | 254 |
| 13.3 Conclusion .....                                                  | 255 |
| Chapter 14                                                         |     |
| Conclusion .....                                                | 258 |
| 14.1 The Figure of Christ .....                                        | 259 |
| 14.2 The Significance of the Christ Event .....                        | 259 |
| 14.3 The Obligations of the Believer .....                             | 260 |
| 14.4 The Function of the Community .....                               | 260 |
| 14.5 Insider/Outsider Ideology in the Pauline Concept of Slavery ..... | 261 |
| 14.6 Slave of Christ as an Emblem .....                                | 263 |
| Bibliography .....                                          | 265 |
| Index of References .....                                       | 281 |
| Index of Authors .....                                          | 297 |
| Index of Subjects .....                                         | 300 |