

Abbreviations	11
1. Introduction	15
2. Complex systems	27
2.1 A new paradigm	27
2.1.1 Complex systems	27
2.1.2 Micro-macro states	32
2.1.3 Emergence	34
2.1.4 Self-organization	38
2.1.4.1 Self-organized criticality	39
2.2 Complexity in the social sciences	42
2.2.1 Complexity and the law	49
3. Commons and cooperation	53
3.1 Commons, common pool resources and common property regimes	53
3.1.1 A systemic view of commons	62
3.2 Public goods and cooperation	63
3.3 Distributive justice and cooperation	81
4. Digital Economy	85
5. Digital Commons	93
5.1 Characteristics	93
5.2 The structure of digital commons	100
6. Case Studies	105
6.1 Enspiral	106
6.1.1 Persons	106
6.1.2 Collective Entities	107
6.1.2.1 Enspiral Foundation	108

6.1.2.2	Productive Community	109
6.1.2.2.1	Working Groups	109
6.1.2.2.2	Livelihood Pods	110
6.1.2.3	Enspiral Ventures	111
6.1.3	Decision Mechanisms	113
6.1.4	Cobudget	115
6.2	Sensorica	116
6.2.1	Participation	117
6.2.2	Collective entities	118
6.2.3	Open Value Network (OVN)	121
6.2.3.1	Value Accounting System (VAS)	122
6.2.4	Nondominium	123
7.	System, Network and Legal Analysis	127
7.1	System and network analysis	127
7.1.1	Enspiral	132
7.1.2	Sensorica	139
7.2	Legal Structure	144
7.2.1	Associations and quasi-association organizational contracts	147
7.2.2	Contractual networks	152
7.2.2.1	Interdependent linked bilateral contracts	154
7.2.2.2	Multilateral framework contract and bilateral executory contracts	163
7.2.2.3	Emergent properties of contractual networks: the doctrine of good faith	167
7.2.3	Steward ownership	174
7.3	Legal Configuration	181
7.3.1	Enspiral	181
7.3.2	Sensorica	184
8.	Conclusions	187
	Bibliography	207
	Index	225