

Contents

Foreword (Alexander Thomas)	9
Introduction	15
Why a Book About Germans?	15
What This Book Holds for You	16
Which Germans Are Described in this Book?	17
Acknowledgments	21
What Are Culture Standards?	23
The Basis	23
The Definition of Culture	25
The Definition of Culture Standards	26
Limitations to the Concept of Culture Standards	29
How Are Culture Standards Generated?	31
Central German Culture Standards	33
Putting it All into Perspective	34
The Historical Context	38
Culture Standards and Their Historical Genesis	38
Principle Features of German History	40
Central German Culture Standards	45
Objectivism	45
Definition of Objectivism	47
The Objective as Focal Point	50
Communication Style	53
The Objective Level and the Subjective Level	57
The Pros and Cons of Objectivism	59
Recommendations	62
Historical Background	64

Appreciation of Rules, Regulations and Structures	68
Definition of Appreciation of Rules, Regulations and Structures	70
Rules and Regulations as Helpful Institutions	71
Germans' Love of Organization	74
Orientation to Detail	78
Ambivalence	80
The Pros and Cons of Appreciation of Rules, Regulations and Structures	82
Recommendations	84
Historical Background	85
Rule-Oriented, Internalized Control	91
The Definition of Rule-Oriented, Internalized Control	92
Consensus: The Best Basis for Rule-Oriented, Internalized Control	96
Living the Conviction	98
The Social Component: Justice and Fairness	100
Independence and Autonomy	102
Obligation to Inform	105
The Moral Value of Rule-Oriented, Internalized Control	106
The Pros and Cons of Rule-Oriented, Internalized Control	108
Recommendations	108
Historical Background	110
Time-Planning	117
Definition of Time-Planning	118
The Matter (Objectivism) as the Essence of Time-Planning	120
Time-Planning Follows a Consecutive Cadence	120
Appointments as Regulators Between Tasks and People	122
Time-Planning in Private Life	126
Time Management	128
Disturbances and Interruptions	128
Violations of Time-Planning	129
The Pros and Cons of Time-Planning	130
Recommendations	131
Historical Background	132
Differentiation of Personality and Living Spheres	134
Definition of Differentiation of Personality and Living Spheres	135

Differentiation Between Professional and Private Life . .	136
Rational Versus Emotional	139
Role Versus Person	140
Formal Versus Informal	142
Self-Assurance in One's Role	145
Regulation of Distance	146
Relationships with Strangers	147
Relationships with Acquaintances/Colleagues	149
Relationships with Good Acquaintances and Friends . .	152
Oscillating Between the Two Poles	153
The Pros and Cons of Differentiation of Personality and Living Spheres	155
Recommendations	156
Historical Background	158
Low-Context Style of Communication	163
Definition of Low-Context Style of Communication . .	164
Direct Communication: No Double Meanings	165
Explicit Communication: What Is Important Will Be Verbalized	169
Conflict Confrontation	173
Self-Assertion	173
Dealing with Criticism	176
Problem-Solving	177
When Germans Use a Higher Context	179
The Pros and Cons of Low-Context Style of Communication	180
Recommendations	182
Historical Background	186
Individualism	192
Definition of Individualism	193
Expressing Individualism	194
Individualism and Other Culture Standards	204
Recommendations	205
Historical Background	208
Conclusion	211
References	214