

1	Introduction	1
2	Background: Social Movements, Climate Justice, & Extinction Rebellion	5
3	Theoretical Framework	11
3.1	The Social Identity Approach	12
3.2	The Social Identity Model of Collective Action	13
3.3	The Encapsulation Model of Social Identity in Collective Action	17
3.4	Social Identity Model of Pro-Environmental Action	19
3.5	Identity	21
3.6	Norms and Morals	24
3.7	Efficacy	25
3.8	Emotions	26
4	Methodology	29
4.1	Research Aim	29
4.2	Narrative Interviews	31
4.3	Observations	33
4.4	Deductive Coding	34
5	Results	37
5.1	Open-Meeting Observations	37
5.2	Composition of Interviewees	39
5.3	Introduction of Interviewees and Initial Factors	40
5.4	Coding Scheme	42
5.5	Social Identity	46

5.6	Norms and Morals	55
5.7	Efficacy	60
5.8	Emotions	64
5.9	Self-Identity	70
5.10	Additional Codes	72
5.11	Summary of the Results	74
6	Discussion	77
6.1	Visualizations of Individuals' Decisions	78
6.2	Patterns and Reflections	80
6.3	Model-Fit Considerations	88
6.4	Limitations, Critical Reflections, and Future Research	91
7	Conclusion	95
	References	99