

Contents

José Casanova

Foreword — V

Debora Tonelli, Gerard Mannion

Exiting Violence: From Texts to Religions — 1

Part I: The Analytical – Historical Approach

Louis Komjathy 康思奇

Visions of Great Peace: Thinking through Chinese Religions on Personal and Socio-Political Harmony — 19

Ian Reader

Legitimation and Sanctification: Texts, Stories and Violence in Religious Contexts — 47

Enzo Pace

Radical Buddhism in Sri Lanka — 69

Assaf Sharon

Counter-Secularism and Religious Revivalism — 85

Jocelyne Cesari

The Global Fate of the Ummah and Its Significance for Violence and Islam — 107

Leo D. Lefebure

The Bible, Identity, and Violence: Violence and Biblical Interpretations in North America — 125

Gloria M. Moran

The Challenge of Dual and Plural Legal Systems: Religious and Secular Jurisdiction — 151

Part II: The Philosophical and Theological Reflection

Gerard Mannion

Religion, Politics and Violence: Overcoming the Shadow of Transvaluation — 179

Debora Tonelli

The Political Role of Biblical Hermeneutics: A Tool for Legitimizing or Countering (Religious) Violence — 193

Fred Dallmayr

In the Time of the Nations: Faith contra Violence — 211

Vincent Sekhar SJ

Theologizing Contextually: Sketches of an Indian Experience — 225

Maryann Cusimano Love

Exiting Violence: Women of Faith as Strategic Peacebuilders, Challenges and Opportunities — 247

Wolfgang Palaver

Dialogue of Life: A Precondition for Interreligious Dialogue — 269

Iván Garzón Vallejo, Andrés Felipe Agudelo

The Rebel and the Prophet: Violence and Nonviolence in Colombia — 285

Index — 303