

Table of Contents

Foreword	7
Introduction	11
 Processes of Change and New Circumstances	 15
1 Spiritual Care: The Reintegration of the Spiritual Dimension into Late Modern Healthcare	19
The Christian Roots of Spiritual Care in the 20th Century	20
Forms and Models of Contemporary Spiritual Care	35
Summary	40
2 Fluid Spiritualities and Social Change	43
The Diversification of Religion and Spirituality	43
Healthcare Chaplaincy in a (Post-)Secular Age	51
Summary	66
 Theological Foundations: The Christian Call to Healing	 67
3 Biblical Foundations: Sent Out to Heal	71
Overcoming Interpretative Shortcomings	72
The Profile of the Christian Call to Healing	73
A Matrix of the Christian Call to Healing: Healing Stories	77
Summary	79
4 The Christian Call to Healing in Contemporary Healthcare	81
Three Basic Options	83
Cure and Healing	86
Starting Points for a Theology of Health and Healing	89
The Diversity and Unity of Christian Engagement in Global Health	102

 Healthcare Chaplaincy as Specialised Spiritual Care	107
5 Healthcare Chaplaincy as an Answer to the Christian Call to Healing	109
Healing Chaplaincy	111
Healthcare Chaplaincy Objectives	115
Outcome Orientation as a New Chaplaincy Paradigm?	117
Presence and Reframing: Dimensions of Healing Chaplaincy . . .	120
Fractures of Meaning in Liminal Situations	122
Healing Presence	128
Summary	136
6 Chaplaincy as a Specialised Profession within Healthcare	139
Distinguishing Roles and the Task of Integration	140
Healthcare Chaplaincy: A Health Profession?	144
At the Intersection of Three Mandates	146
Cumulative Complexity and Interprofessional Collaboration . . .	150
Chaplaincy in Inter- and Transreligious Constellations	167
7 Healthcare Chaplaincy as a Spiritual Profession	175
A Spiritual Attitude as a Hallmark of the Profession	176
Anchoring in a Faith Community	178
The Symbolism of the Role of Chaplain	180
Competence in Reflective Spiritual Communication and Ritualisation in Clinical Contexts	181
Review and Outlook	183
Bibliography	187
Official Texts	187
Secondary Literature	188