

Contents

Martin Stutzmann

|                                                                                         |          |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Charge-Induced Structural Relaxation in Hydrogenated Amorphous Silicon . . . . . | 1 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|

Igor Kukushkin, Vladislav Timofeev, Klaus v. Klitzing, Klaus Ploog

|                                                                                                                                                                                      |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Magnetooptics of Two-Dimensional Electrons Under the Conditions of Integral and Fractional Quantum Hall Effect in Si-MOSFETs and GaAs-AlGaAs Single Heterojunctions . . . . . | 21 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|

Friedl Kuchar

|                                                                                                      |           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Microwave Investigations of the Quantum Hall Effect in GaAs/AlGaAs Heterostructures . . . . . | 45 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|

Wilfried Schäfer

|                                                                                   |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Recent Developments in the Theory of Highly Excited Semiconductors . . . . | 63 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|

Willy Beinvogl, Erwin Hopf

|                                                   |           |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| The Development of a 4 Mbit DRAM . . . . . | 87 |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----------|

Alfred Forchel, Helmut Leier, Bernd E. Maile, Roland Germann

|                                                                                                              |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Fabrication and Optical Spectroscopy of Ultra Small III-V Compound Semiconductor Structures . . . . . | 99 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|

Wolfgang Hansen

|                                                                                        |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Quasi-One-Dimensional Electron Systems on GaAs/AlGaAs Heterojunctions . . . . . | 121 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|

Werner Weber

|                                                                         |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| On the Theory of High <math>T_c</math> Superconductors . . . . . | 141 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|