

Contents

Foreword13

Part I:
Introduction to elementary economics of profit economies

Chapter I. Praeter-Economics: Wealth procurement by violence 33

Chapter II. Value, money and the economic system 39

Section 1. Value and value attribution 39

Section 2. Money and money creation 58

Section 3. The economic system 76

Chapter III. Wealth procurement by exchange 81

Section 1. Consumptive and investive spending: $C-M-C'$ and $M-C-M'$ 81

Section 2. The productive and the sterile economy109

Section 3. A tableau économique of modern capitalism 118

Section 4. An original assembly 132

Part II:
Ancient capitalism, the ascent of ancient prosthetics and their dilemmas

Chapter IV. Primitive society, civilization and the ancient master drama137

Section 1. Goods procurement in primitive society137

Section 2. Primitive society and civilization 138

Section 3. The master drama of ancient capitalism: Land for peasants144

Chapter V. Conservative-restorative policies and prosthetics in ancient capitalism ..149

Section 1. Conservative-restorative policies and prosthetics in ancient Greece149

Section 2. Conservative-restorative policies and prosthetics in ancient Rome164

Section 3. China: A glance at 2000 years of East-Eurasian ancient master drama174

Section 4. The failure of conservatism/restoration, ancient prosthetics and their dilemmas 186

Part III:

The deficiency of employment-generating spending in modern capitalism

Chapter VI. The master drama of modern capitalism: Employment for workers199

Chapter VII. The structural deficiency of employment-generating spending in modern capitalism201

Section 1. Circuit closure analysis.....201

Section 2. Quesnay's dépenses-integrated "royaume agricole" 203

Section 3. Smith: An invisible hand over suppliers and customers216

Section 4. Proudhon and Sismondi: Producers cannot buy their produce221

Section 5. Malthus: Costs cannot buy value 227

Section 6. What Say said and Ricardo's Law of Say 233

Section 7. Marx's insufficient theory on insufficient employment-generating spending 242

Section 8. Keynes: Firms' deficient employment-generating spending as deficient remedy for consumers' deficient employment-generating spending 285

Section 9. Kalecki: Only capitalists can save capitalists321

Section 10. Minsky: Liquidity and firms' employment-generating spending 331

Chapter VIII. The deficient-productive-spending-syndrome343

Section 1. A merely abstract possibility of circuit closure in capitalism..... 343

Section 2. The drain of wealth out of the productive economy 351

Section 3. The deficient-productive-spending-syndrome 365

Section 4. Secondary dynamics and the deficient-productive-spending-syndrome371

Part IV: The prosthetics of modern capitalism and their dilemmas

Chapter IX. Redistributive and expansive prosthetics 375

Chapter X. Redistributive prosthetics funded without money creation 377

Section 1. Redistributive prosthetics funded with domestic taxation and expropriations .. 377

Section 2. Redistributive prosthetics funded with war, external violent wealth procurement and protectionism..... 388

Section 3. Redistributive prosthetics funded with redistributive debt 399

Chapter XI. Expansive prosthetics funded with money creation in commodity money regimes 407

Section 1. Expansive prosthetics funded with commodity money creation 409

Section 2. Expansive prosthetics funded with merchant credit money creation 411

Section 3. Expansive prosthetics funded with private bank credit money creation 417

Chapter XII. Expansive prosthetics funded with money creation in state fiat money regimes 431

Section 1. From commodity money regimes to state fiat money regimes 431

Section 2. State fiat money creation aside private bank credit money creation..... 436

Section 3. Expansive prosthetics funded with private bank credit money creation 439

Section 4. Expansive prosthetics funded with state fiat money creation 454

Chapter XIII. The dilemmas of the prosthetics of modern capitalism 481

Afterword: An outlook in questions and answers..... 489

Appendix

Conventions..... 509

List of Figures 519

References..... 521